MINUTES OF ANNUAL MEETING, HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY, HELD SATURDAY, APRIL 19, 1930, AT MISSION MEMORIAL HALL—THIS BEING THE 110TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ARRIVAL AT HONOLULU OF THE PIONEER MISSIONARIES TO HAWAII.

Business Meeting

President H. Harvey Hitchcock called the meeting to order at 2:30 P. M. and read his report for the year. This is found elsewhere in this issue. On motion of Wm. W. Chamberlain, duly seconded, the report was accepted.

Treasurer W. W. Chamberlain presented an abbreviated report of the income and expenses of the Society for the calendar year 1929, the full report to be printed as usual. Referring to the rehabilitation of the Old Mission House, spoken of in the President's report, Mr. Chamberlain moved that the incoming president appoint a committee of seven to take care of the financing of this project. Seconded and passed. The Treasurer then read his proposed budget of appropriations for the ensuing year. On motion of Wm. J. Forbes, duly seconded, the reports of the Treasurer were accepted.

Miss Bernice Judd made a plea for gifts of books needed in the Society's Library and special numbers of "The Friend". Frank C. Atherton suggested that the list of books be printed in the daily papers.

The report of the Nominating Committee for officers for the ensuing year was read by the Secretary, the chairman, Mrs. Rosamond S. Morgan, being detained at home by chickenpox in her family. The recommendations were as follows:

President.....Mr. H. Harvey Hitchcock
Vice-President.....Mrs. Ruth Richards Midkiff
Treasurer.....Mr. Wm. W. Chamberlain
Secretary.....Miss Harriet G. Forbes
Auditor.....Mr. J. P. G. Morgan

Lacking nominations from the floor, the Committee's recommendation was accepted, balloted by the Secretary and the persons named declared elected.

The business meeting then closed, and an interval of a few minutes was given for sociability.

The Commemorative Meeting

Opened by the singing of "Blest be the Tie that Binds," and prayer by Rev. W. D. Westervelt. Cousin Caroline Castle Westervelt at the piano.

The main feature of the afternoon's program was announced, a series of four pantomimes portraying mission life in Hawaii one hundred years ago. Descriptive verses were read by Helen Hitchcock before each scene. (These, a synopsis of the scenes and the cast appear elsewhere.)

At the conclusion of this number, Cousin Mary Atherton Richards explained what has been accomplished and what it is hoped to accomplish at the Kokokahi Community Center (inter-racial), at Kaneohe, across the Pali. (See more detail elsewhere.) The Cousins' Society was invited to hold its next annual meeting at Kauhale Kokokahi, "House of One Blood", a drive of only forty minutes over the Pali.

Before the roll call, the President introduced the Cousin who had come the farthest to attend the meeting, Mrs. Cora Hitchcock Townsend, arriving from Manila that very day.

Other Cousins present, who had lately returned to the Islands, were Harry A. Kluegel, his wife and son Jack, also Martha W. Beckwith.

C. Dudley Pratt then called the roll, with the following representation present: Judds 40, Clarks 15, Cookes 14, Binghams 10, Chamberlains and J. W. Smiths 9 each, Thurstons 8, Hitchcocks 6, Castles, Paris, Halls, Forbes 5 each, Bishops, Rices, Lymans 4 each, Andrews, Greens, Baldwins, Alexanders, Parkers, L. Smiths, Dimonds, Doles and Rowells 2 each, while the Gulicks, Lyons, and Bonds had 1 each. About 20 consorts were present.

A collection of $74.63 was received.

After the closing hymn, "Greenland's Icy Mountains," the assembly adjourned to the front of the Mission Memorial building where a photograph was taken by Mr. Wadsworth, it having been ten years since the last authorized full-group picture.

The assembly then dispersed.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT, HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

April 19, 1930.

The routine work of the officers and Board of Managers of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society has come to its conclusion at the end of another successful year in which five meetings of the Board of Managers were held.

Financial

The amount realized from the sale of the Gulick Coin Collection ($82.70) was placed in the Missionary Fund, the income to be used for Missionary purposes. The amount to be used for Missionary work has been increased from $100 to $600 for the year 1930. Various financial adjustments have been made during the year in the matter of principal investments, and the Missionary and Maintenance funds have been consolidated to simplify bookkeeping.

Proteges

Three Hawaiian girls were supported at Maunaolu Seminary this year and one partly paid for at Kawaiahao Seminary. Although there was some trouble with one of the girls at Maunaolu which necessitated replacing her with another girl last September, and one of the girls has been out of school for a while with eye trouble, the record of all those now under the wing of the Society at present is promising.

Missions

A hundred dollars was contributed to the American Hospital at Constantinople, for which an appreciative letter was received in reply.

Library

During the past year Mr. Sheeley has retired as Librarian, and I am pleased to report that the position is efficiently filled by Miss Bernice Judd, who is now with us permanently. Miss Judd is being ably assisted by Mrs. Violet (Austin) Silverman on part time. A school boy also is employed on part time to move and label books, etc.

Much of interest has transpired in the Library under the direction of Mrs. Morgan, chairman of the Library Committee. The old worm-eaten book stacks have been replaced with new steel stacks. The books are now in three rooms instead of five, leaving one room for the old missionary furniture and one room for the interesting old pictures which are all labeled.

A good start has been made toward re-cataloguing and 51 volumes have been repaired and bound.

Of an edition of 300 copies of "Voyages to Hawaii before 1860," 102 have been given as complimentary copies and 53 have been sold, for the most part to people on the mainland.

Several new acquisitions have been made by the Library, purchased and given.

A large number of people have used the library, there being 135 signatures in the guest book, though this figure is only approximate as many did not sign.

Old Frame House

Repairs to the old frame house have been made from time to time, but it has at last past the stage where repairs will suffice and reconstruction has become necessary. At the suggestion of Mr. Clarence Cooke, Mr. C. W. Dickey has placed in the hands of your president complete plans and specifications for the restoration of the structure in fireproof materials, using the old exterior lumber, flooring, etc., as much as possible. This will cost approximately $6900, and will leave the old house in appearance as it is now, but will insure it against inevitable ravages of time. It is the hope of your president that this scheme may be consummated during the coming year.

Many visitors have come to the old building. Among them many of our school children in classes and individually.

We have added 27 life members to the Society and lost 16 members through death.

I wish to extend my thanks to the other officers of this organization for their cooperation, and to express my deep appreciation for the excellent work they have done during the year.

H. HARVEY HITCHCOCK,
President.

PANTOMIMES

SCENES OF MISSIONARY LIFE IN 1830

The entertainment for the annual meeting took the form of pantomimes depicting as nearly as possible four scenes of missionary life in Hawaii in the year 1830. These were prepared and directed by Miss Helen Hitchcock, who was ably assisted by Miss Dora Cooke. Some license was taken with the historical accuracy of that period, in order to fit the present-day circumstances. The characters were acted by second, third and fourth generation lineal descendants, assisted by boys from Kamehameha School and Girl Scouts. For the benefit of the absentees, a synopsis is given of the four scenes and the verses read by Helen Hitchcock previous to each scene.

SCENE I

Mission grounds. Arrival of U. S. "Vincennes", Capt. Finch, occasion of a joyful reunion. The chaplain, Rev. Chas. S. Stewart, former missionary in the "Sandwich Islands" from 1823 to 1825. A welcome for him by the Binghams, Judds, Chamberlains and Thurstons.

Merry it is in this age of wild jazz
To live at a speed almost frantic,
So we pity our forefathers, living so slow
And cut off from amusements romantic.

Now here are some scenes from the life of the past.
We hope they will quicken and thrill you,
For say what you will, there may still be a thrill,
Without any speeders to kill you.

Now a century ago it may seem life was slow—
No tourists came weekly to play here—
And when once they had gone 'round the tempest-swept Horn,
Our forefathers just had to stay here.

Yet travellers came and people of fame,
The routine of the mission to vary.
The Vincennes—Man O' War—once stopped at our shore
Bringing Stewart, 'erstwhile missionary.

In the Navy a chaplain, with Finch as his captain,
He brings Uncle Sam's message glorious,
Which commends the good mission, confirms its position,
And censures the wild and uproarious.

With minds all intent on this joyous event,
All clad in best broadcloth and ginghams,
Came the mission folk all, the large and the small,
The Chamberlains, Judds, and the Binghams.

You may now ride like lords in your Packards and Fords,
You may sing of athletics and biking—
Then maneles swinging, from Manoa came, bringing
Mrs. Thurston, while Mr. came hiking.

If you feel tearful joy at "Aloha Oe,"
You surely will need no persuasion,
To cause you to see why tears were so free
'Mongst old friends on this happy occasion.

SCENE II

Chamberlain House. Supplies nearly exhausted. Missionaries grateful for arrival of U. S. "Vincennes" with letters, clothes and fresh provisions from America.

Now turn we to another scene
Of life not always quite serene—
(You'll shortly see just what we mean)
Of those old days of the Mission.

Supplies had grown quite poor and few;
There was naught to eat and much to do,
For the fathers and the mothers too,
Of those old days of the Mission.

One barrel of flour caked like brick,
Only an axe could do the trick—
They chopped it up in pieces thick,
In those old days of the Mission.

But Captain Finch brought into port
Supplies of many a tempting sort,
And the ladies had exciting sport,
In those old days of the Mission.

Like housewives at a bargain sale,
They pried in every box and bale,
With joy unguessed by any male,
Our Mothers of the Mission.

The shoes from Boston, all were tried,
Though coats were small, they squeezed inside.
At times 'twas hardly dignified,
For those old days of the Mission.

SCENE III

Mission School. Exhibition of reading by Miss Ogden's pupils for the Rev. Stewart. Lack of books cause them to learn to read from many angles.

Topsy-turvy was the rule
That held at the Mission School,
For no youngsters came to learn,
'Twas the old folks took their turn.

So they learned their A B C's
And their tables, 2's and 3's
Many pupils at one book,
One to hold, the rest to look.

Upside down they learned to read,
Sideways, slanting—yes indeed!
Upsidedowners, reading straight,
Soon were in a muddled state.

Stewart paused at the Mission School
Under dear Miss Ogden's rule
While they had a reading test
And each student did his best.

SCENE IV

Bingham's home. Many interruptions for Mrs. Bingham during preparations for a tea party in honor of U. S. Naval officers. Unexpected arrival of King Kamehameha III and suite. Proclamation assuring protection by U. S. Government cause of rejoicing.

Now, heavy with the weight of social whirl
With Junior League and Balls of Holoku,
Our matron's head sinks low, care makes her gray—
She thinks she has an awful lot to do.

But turn back History's page again, ye Muse,
And let us gaze upon the honored past.
The social whirl was whirling even then—
Don't let them tell you that it wasn't fast.

Now Mother Bingham plans with anxious care
A tea to honor those distinguished guests,
Both Finch and Stewart (with others from the ship)
Who to the King brought Uncle Sam's behests.

She grappled with the ever-present dust,
Gave castor oil to suffering native son,
Got ready boiling water for the tea,
While showing daughter how a seam was run.

In came the guests she'd calculated for,
The local mission folk, and Stewart and Finch,
With the addition of the King and train,
Who had descended on her in this pinch.

It well might be the hostess stood aghast—
Viewed with dismay the unexpected horde—
In sudden panic searching how she might Eke out the scant provision of her board.

But e'er the celebration should begin,
The Missionaries, followed by the King,
Joined in a fervent prayer of gratitude
For all the blessings that the day did bring.

W. W. CHAMBERLAIN,
Treasurer.

Honolulu, March 14, 1930.

Honolulu, T. H., April 19th, 1930.

I have checked the accounts kept by the Treasurer of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society for the year ended December 31st, 1929, and have to report to the members of the Society that I have obtained all of the information and explanations that I require. In my opinion the statement of Assets and Liabilities shown is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Society's affairs, according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me and as shown by the books of the Society.

(Signed) B. H. DAMON,
Auditor, Hawaiian Mission Children's Society.

KOKOKAHI COMMUNITY CENTER

For Christian Conferences

At Kaneohe, Oahu, not far from the early mission parish of Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Parker, stands the infant child of our Cousin Theodore Richards, the future Christian Conference grounds of Hawaii, now about two years old.

There two and a half acres of a larger tract of land have been set aside for this purpose, with a wonderful view of ocean and mountains. On this acreage are already under construction the first of twenty-four small cottages to be used for living quarters and small-group conferences. The cottages to be of three sizes and arranged in two courts.

Descendants of our early missionaries are being given the opportunity to pay for the erection of a cottage, which shall have the name and picture of their missionary ancestor, also a brief historical caption, attached. The cost is nominal, $500 for the smallest type building; $750 for the next larger and $1,000 for the largest.

A quick response has been shown since this plan has been launched. Six cottages have been pledged and construction begun.

Will it not be an inspiration and education, to our younger generation especially, to find there such honored names as Castle, Coan, Lyons, William Richards, Lowell Smith and others?

Interested Cousins may get in touch with Mr. Theodore Richards, Mission Memorial Building, 574 S. King Street, Honolulu.

It should be added that a dining hall has already been erected and in use for some time, as nineteen conferences were held at Kokokahi during the past year. Later it is proposed to erect a fine auditorium and amphitheater for open-air assemblies.

MISSING "FRIENDS"

The Library of the H. M. C. Society is lacking the following issues of "The Friend," the publication so closely connected with the Mission since 1843.

Year 1851, January and February.
1885, July, August, September and December.
1888, August and September.

This paper is one of the much-consulted sources of information in our Library and it is highly important that our set be completed. We will appreciate very much the gift of any or all of above numbers. Address Miss Bernice Judd, Librarian, P. O. Box 2596.

LAHAINALUNA COPPER PLATE

In February, 1930, an interesting piece of old copper about six inches square was found in the Old Mission printing office. It had been given to the H. M. C. Society in 1923, but misplaced. It had formerly belonged to our late Cousin, Dr. Frances Wetmore, of Hilo.

Mr. H. M. Luquiens, a well-known etcher, brother of our Mrs.

Charles S. Judd, kindly struck off a few prints from this plate, and gave us the following statement concerning it.

"This copper plate, engraved on both sides, is a piece of thin copper sheathing such as might be obtained from ships' stores in the years of Lahainaluna engraving (1833-1843). It was somewhat crumpled and encrusted with dirt when found, so that it was necessary to flatten it and clean it sufficiently to print from it. No effort was made, however, to remove small dents or to polish the surface.

"The plate is evidently a portion of a larger Hawaiian map of Asia, very well executed, and shows the China-Malay-Philippine region. This section, cut from the larger plate, was later used for student's practice work. The back shows a map of South America, with the signature of a student, Makalena, and other miscellaneous lettering. The front of the plate, also, shows some students' work, and is a good deal defaced with accidental scratches.

"The remaining section of the map of Asia, which constitutes the front of this plate, gives no clue as to its date. It is easily identified, however, as somewhat less than a quarter of a complete map of Asia, a print of which (hand colored after printing) is now in the collection of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society, loaned to the Honolulu Academy of Arts. This print shows the date, 'Lahainaluna Maui 1837', as well as the name of the engraver, Kalama, who was the engraver of a number of the Lahainaluna prints now extant. This evidently places the plate definitely as a specimen of the early Lahainaluna engraving."

The above-described copper plate, with a print from each side, is now on exhibition in the building where it was found. It is the only one known to be in existence today that was used at Lahainaluna. If any of the "Cousins" know of other old Lahainaluna copper plates, please notify us.

GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS

Copies of the group photographs taken at the annual meeting on April 19, 1930, which appear in much reduced form in this issue, may be had through the secretary. Price $1.00 for large group, 75c for small group, plus postage. The small group shows only the participants in the pantomimes. Both are very clear and good. Sizes, large 19x8 inches; small 14¼x8, unmounted, but printed on heavy paper.

PUNAHOU SCHOOL

Mr. Oscar F. Shepard, with his wife and two children, arrived in Honolulu August 2, 1929, and assumed the principalship of Punahou, succeeding Mr. A. A. Hauck. Mr. Shepard is well fitted for the position he is filling and under his guidance Punahou is finishing a successful year.

Dillingham Hall, the latest building to rise on the grounds, was presented to Punahou by the Dillingham family on April 26, 1929, and dedicated to its use as a dramatic hall in the evening with a play by the Footlights Club.

GIFTS

Our gifts this past year have consisted largely of photos, booklets, pamphlets and letters. Mrs. Mary Hitchcock Snow gave a daguerreotype of Miss Lydia Brown, of the seventh company of Missionaries. This is of special interest as the Society has never had a likeness of Miss Brown. Mrs. Belle Fuller Jones brought in a doll's koa bedstead which was made for Cornelia ("Kittie") Hall, later Mrs. P. C. Jones, when four years old. At our annual meeting, Mrs. Ella P. Sargent presented a sheet of silhouette drawings of Lucy Goodale in 1819, her sister Persis Goodale, 1819 and 1824, and of Persis Goodale's husband, J. L. Parkhurst. Mrs. Sargent, whose name was Parkhurst, is a granddaughter of J. L. Parkhurst and is now living in Honolulu. We have also just received three interesting old pieces of Hawaiian tapa, from Rev. J. Q. Adams. These formerly belonged to Miss Mary E. Green.

Of the pamphlets, etc., we wish to record that the widow of the late Prof. A. Marques (he was formerly French teacher at Punahou), sent a package, which her husband had requested should come to the Cousins' Society. It contained five issues of "The Friend," Story of the Morning Star and considerable other material regarding Micronesia.

THE SOCIETY'S PROTEGES

Rhoda Ke has continued her High School studies at Mid-Pacific Institute, Honolulu, and enjoys her school life very much. She has developed in character and been entrusted with considerable responsibility. We have words of high commendation regarding her capabilities and standing from the President of the Institute.

Grace Papalimu, of Molokai, did not return to Maunaolu Seminary last September. Her place was filled by a deserving Hawaiian girl from Honolulu, Ruth Kaimi, fourteen years of age. Ruth left for Maui on September 9th and has made a very good record during the school year.

Caroline Kukahiko, the six-year-old protege from Lahaina, Maui, has not been at Maunaolu since Christmas. We hope she will return in September, after her eyes have been adjusted.

Regarding Esther Kaleialoha, the principal of Maunaolu wrote in January of this year, "Little Esther is not yet six years old, she says. She was probably a year younger than we knew. Anyway, she is reading and writing well for a five-year old."

THE ROLL-CALL OF COUSINS

ALEXANDER (W. P.) Wm. P. Alexander, who for eight years was chief agriculturist at Ewa Plantation, Oahu, resigned early in May, 1929, to accept an important position with the Gomez

Mena Sugar Co. in Havana, Cuba. He left Honolulu on May 25 for his new field of labor. Mrs. Alexander (nee Alice Bond) remained in the islands until October 5, when she followed with the three sons to make their home in Cuba. With them as companion, went Mary Douglas Alexander, William's sister, to see them settled and spend the winter in Cuba. After that she entered Columbia University, N. Y. City, to take advanced courses to fit herself for work in pre-kindergarten day nurseries. We hear good reports from the Wm. Alexanders, although life in Cuba is very different from that in Hawaii. In February of this year Cousin William wrote us, "I am general manager of the Irrigated Zone of the New Gomez Mena Sugar Co., working on Centrals (plantations), Gomez Mena, Merdidita, and Amistad." Their address is found in our roster.

Dr. Edgar W. Alexander and family have moved from Mountain View to Palo Alto, Calif. Cousin Edgar and his wife are thorough believers in sun baths on the beach at Waikiki, and made their yearly trip to Honolulu early this year, for rest and recuperation. Cousin Edgar's happy little call at the secretary's office on February 10th was much appreciated. We hope he will repeat it annually.

Wallace M. Alexander was not in Honolulu at the opening of the new Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., building on September 30, 1929, but passed through early in October en route to Japan. He had spent the summer in Europe as a delegate to the International Chamber of Commerce Convention in Amsterdam. In Kyoto, Japan, Cousin Wallace attended the Institute of Pacific Relations, of which he is one of the Vice-Presidents. He was accompanied by his daughter, Martha, who acted as his private secretary. Martha graduated from her course at the Cathedral School, Washington, D. C., in June, 1929. On their return in December from Kyoto, while spending a week in Honolulu, Cousin Wallace Alexander gave a talk regarding the conference in Japan before the Central Union Church forum. While again in Honolulu, in February of this year, he tendered his resignation as president of the firm of Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., which position he had held for twelve years. However, his official relationship was not severed by this act. By special resolution, he was made Chairman of the Board of Directors of the firm he has grown up with.

Annie M. Alexander, while on her customary winter visit to Honolulu, called and left with the Secretary two interesting photographs, one of Rev. James Kekela and family, the other of Rev. Samuel Kauwealoha, early missionaries from Hawaii to the Marquesas Islands. The photos were taken by Cousin Annie in 1896 while touring those islands with her father, Samuel T. Alexander, and uncle, James M. Alexander. Cousin Annie said that Kauwealoha received his theological training from her grandfather, Rev. Wm. P. Alexander. The "Friend" asked permission to use the photograph of Rev. Kekala and family in the February issue, so many of the Cousins have seen it already.

In July, 1929, our Cousins John and Martha (Alexander) Waterhouse and their family again passed through the "deep waters" of swift and unexpected sorrow. Their second son, Wallace, met with a fatal accident while playing polo, at Kahuku Plantation, Oahu, and passed away six hours later without regaining consciousness. An airplane was employed to carry word of the accident to the young man's father, who was spending the day in deep-sea fishing near the Oahu coast. Mrs. Waterhouse was on a trans-Pacific steamer, returning from the mainland. The entire community was shocked. At the cemetery service a few days later, in the midst of the family, friends and innumerable floral expressions, the ashes were laid to rest in Nuuanu Valley, while Rev. Norman Schenck, who knew too well the same sorrow, repeated words of hope and comfort.

John T. ("Jack") Waterhouse graduated from Princeton University in June, 1929, and has spent the year since then traveling. His home letters, telling of his experiences in out-of-the-way places, have been very interesting. Jack's sister, "Pattie" Waterhouse, is no longer with the Savings Department of the Bishop First National Bank of Honolulu.

From the Dickey branch of the Alexander family comes word of the marriage of Arthur Alexander Merrill, oldest son of Cousins Arthur M. and Grace (Dickey) Merrill, of Piedmont, Calif. The bride was Miss Elsie Breed. They were married August 17, 1929, at the Piedmont Community Church, Piedmont, Calif., and are living in Schenectady, N. Y. (See roster.) In January of this year Cousin Grace made her new daughter a member of the H. M. C. Society, and said, "Arthur is with the General Electric Co., at Schenectady, and he and his wife Elsie are enjoying the life there very much." Regarding her other two sons, Cousin Grace says: "Charlie is in his second year at Harvard Law School, William is a Senior at the University of California and plans to go East for study in architecture."

Cousin Will Dickey and his wife Frances (Kinney) Dickey added "grandparents" to their names on October 5, 1929, when Herbert Dickey Thacker arrived in the home of their daughter, Dorothy (Dickey) Thacker. Mr. and Mrs. Thacker live in Honolulu. Cousin Will continues to be a very busy man architecturally. Plans for many new buildings are in his hands. His outstanding finished edifice during the past year was the Alexander & Baldwin four-story office building, on the corner of Merchant and Bishop Streets.

James D. Dole, Jr., son of "Jim" (of pineapple fame), and Belle (Dickey) Dole, joined the force of the Bishop Trust Co., Honolulu, with the real estate department in July, 1929.

ANDREWS (C. B.) We are glad, after several years, to have a direct report from our Cousin, Dr. Lorrin Andrews Shepard, and to welcome him as a member of our Society. He is a grandson of Rev. and Mrs. Claudius B. Andrews, who came in 1844 as missionaries to Hawaii. Dr. Shepard's mother, Mrs. Fanny Andrews Shepard, was known to many of our older cousins. She trained for a medical missionary, married Dr. Frederick D. Shepard and with him gave her life to the cause of the outcast and downtrodden Armenians in and around Aintab, Turkey. They experienced two terrible massacres and finally the terrors of the World War. Such is the inheritance of Lorrin Andrews Shepard, who was born at Aintab. Continuing in the footsteps of his parents, he is in turn giving his services as a medical missionary. Following expulsion from Aintab during the World War and several years of unsettled missionary work, he is now in charge of The American Hospital at Constantinople.

Writing to the Secretary under date of September 8, 1929, in acknowledgment of the H. M. C. Society's donation to his work, Dr. Shepard says, "It was with great pleasure that I received your good letter of July 19th about ten days ago while we were in camp on the slopes of Mt. Olympus, near the old Turkish city of Brusa. I was there with my wife and four children for three weeks, living in tents at an altitude of about 4,400 feet, surrounded with lovely pine and fir woods. It did us all a world of good to get away from this hot and hectic city and live the simple life for a while.

"I certainly appreciate more than I can tell you the generous contribution from the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society. I was asked to become director of this hospital two years ago when its finances were exhausted and the community discouraged about the possibility of keeping going. It has been an uphill fight and we still have great difficulty securing the funds necessary to keep it going, but I feel sure that in many ways there has been real progress, and before many more years I hope to see the work securely on its feet and its finances permanently provided for."

Dr. Shepard's report for the year 1928 shows that The American Hospital of Constantinople guards the health of resident and transient Americans, as well as people of all nationalities in that great cosmopolitan city, and is training young women of the country in modern methods of nursing. Nursing is a new profession in the Near East and the need for many nurses, well trained, is freely acknowledged. This is the only city in Turkey where candidates can be found in sufficient numbers. This hospital is rendering a big service by providing a high class training for the pioneers of nursing in Turkey. A class of eleven was graduated in 1928, another of six was to graduate in 1929. American methods are taught and American standards maintained.

ANDREWS (L.) The pioneer Andrews family was written up at length last year and only a few changes need be mentioned in this report.

Lorrin Andrews and family still live in Los Angeles. Thomas H. Skinner Andrews, brother of Lorrin, with his wife and two little boys, spent some months in Europe, but have returned to their home in Scarsdale, N. Y. Mrs. William Andrews, Lorrin's mother, with her daughter Ethel, has returned to her loved New York City and located at Miss Mabel's address on 15th Ave.

The Fernows have spent the year at Clemson College, S. Carolina and the Burchers at Scarsdale, near enough to the City for Billy and Adele Burcher to have the benefit of Columbia University.

"Aunt Mary" Nott is with her daughter Sarah, Mrs. George C. Moore, of Long Beach, Calif. All who have seen her say, "she is quite frail but very lovely." She writes that "it was like a breath from the trade winds of Nuuanu Valley to receive calls from Agnes Judd and Mary Burbank." Her children, W. W. Nott, of Waco, Texas; Robert H. Nott of Hammond, La., with their families; Mrs. Anne Brigman of Long Beach; Miss Mary Nott, of Berkeley, Calif., and Elizabeth Hough and husband, of Davenport, Iowa, are progressing along the same lines as last year, as are the Hardy, L. A. Thurston and R. W. Andrews branches of the family.

Carl B. Andrews has been teaching a new course in Soil Mechanics at the University of Hawaii for the last two years, in addition to his usual subjects. He and his wife Laura have had a niece, Jana Glenn, living with them and attending the University. Jana's sister Marion will join her next year. She will arrive in June, chaperoned by her mother, sister of Mrs. Carl Andrews, who comes for her first visit to Hawaii.

Mrs. R. W. Andrews, your Secretary Emeritus, with her brother and sister, still live at 707 Wyllie St. She and her brother, Rev. B. T. Sheeley, are "doing their bit" in H. M. C. S. office and library, thus keeping in touch with the work they love. M. S. A.

ARMSTRONG (R.) Mrs. Ruth (Beckwith) Bullock and family were obliged to leave China about three years ago and return to the mainland on account of Mr. Bullock's health. Mrs. Bullock is now in Los Angeles, Calif., where her three youngest children are in school, and where her invalid aunt, Miss Mary G. Holmes, is living. Mr. Bullock is still prevented by health from returning to China, but is able to teach and is in charge of the department of education at the Lincoln University for colored students, near Philadelphia, Pa. Their oldest son, Anson B. Bullock, is attending an eastern college.

Mrs. Eleanor (Weaver) Teel sends her best wishes and reports that her husband, Dr. Harold M. Teel, graduated from the Harvard Medical School in June, 1929, and is serving for a year at the Lakeside Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio. They live in Cleveland Heights and their changed address appears in the roster.

Matthew C. Armstrong has made his wife, Mrs. Grace T. Armstrong, a life member of our Society. Their only daughter, Elizabeth, has been a member for several years. These Cousins live at Hampton, Va. Matthew and his brother, Richard, are in the real estate business under the name of Armstrong Land & Improvement Co. They are sons of William Nevins Armstrong In January of this year Mr. Daniel Armstrong, only son of Samuel

C. Armstrong, was appointed a Trustee of Hampton Institute. A member of the staff of The Southern Workman, Hampton's monthly publication, writes: "We are all very glad to have him on our Board. He is a very fine young man and is very much interested in Hampton. Whenever he speaks to the students on his visits here he always makes some reference to his father with a pride which is very beautiful to see." And adds that "he has not had a picture taken since his days in the Navy when he wore a naval uniform and although we have begged him to have one taken for publication we have not succeeded as yet."

In June, 1929, came the following from Cousin Clarissa (Weaver) Jones, of New York City: "My son Sherman Armstrong Jones is now connected with the McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. of 285 Madison Ave., New York City, and is very happy and doing very well in his chosen line of action, advertising. He is still single and living at home and we feel ourselves lucky to have had him thus long! My sister, Mrs. H. W. Fangel, is living in Florence, Italy, and loves her Italian life. Sometime, before too long, I am hoping we may visit again our beautiful islands. I never cease to miss their beauty and charm." She closes "with all good wishes."

Mrs. Millie B. Hair has made her home in Berkeley, Calif., during the past year with her youngest daughter Doris, while the latter has been doing postgraduate work at the University of California in the Social Service field. At Christmas time (1929) Doris visited her Bullock relatives in Los Angeles. Little Donald Beckwith Thomas, Mrs. Hair's oldest grandchild, lives with his parents at Wailuku, Maui, and is now four years old. His mother was Dorothy Hair.

BAILEY (E.) Under the heading of Deaths, we are recording the passing of George Horatio Bailey, brother of Mrs. May (Bailey) Zumwalt, on February 22 of this year.

Mr. Grant Bailey is manager of Hoaeae Ranch at Waipahu, Oahu, and sends Rhode Island Red chicks to the other islands via airplane.

BALDWIN (D.) Mrs. Hardy Hill, nee Jessie Baldwin, spent the summer of 1929 on Maui with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erdman D. Baldwin. Lieut. Hill arrived later to accompany his wife on their return.

Olive L. and C. Morris Baldwin, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Baldwin, of Honolulu, are now in their senior year at Palo Alto High School, Calif., where they have been studying for three years. Mrs. Baldwin, makes her home with Olive and Morris in Palo Alto. Mr. Baldwin continues his principalship of Kaahumanu Schol, Honolulu, but spends his summers with his family in California. Their outing during the 1929 summer vacation was spent at Lake Tahoe, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Baldwin, of Paia, Maui, and their daughter Frances, visited the mainland during the summer of 1929. This is the Mansfield Baldwin branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Baldwin took the Pacific cruise on the steamer "Malolo" last fall, 1929, with many others from Hawaii and the mainland. This was a comprehensive tour to the countries bordering the Pacific in a spirit of goodwill and to encourage neighborly trade relations.

"Glenside," the former D. D. Baldwin homestead at Haiku, Maui, has been incorporated as Glenside Estate, Ltd., for the purpose of farming or disposing of the land. Officers of the corporation are all members of the family.

In honor of Mrs. H. P. Baldwin's eighty-fourth birthday, January 18, 1930, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Rice gave a luau at their beach house, Paia, Maui. Mrs. Maud Baldwin Cooke was a guest from Honolulu, making the trip to Maui by airplane in one hour. "Hawaiian choirs from various churches sang and covered the dear lady with beautiful leis."

Mrs. Baldwin reports the birth of her eighth great-grandchild, Ruth Baldwin, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Baldwin, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Baldwin now has thirty grandchildren.

Asa Baldwin, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Baldwin, of Puunene, Maui, graduated from Yale University in June of 1929. After a short visit at his island home, he left in September for a European trip with a group of his classmates, which occupied four months. He is now back on Maui.

Mrs. Polly Baldwin Webster and daughter Nancy Virginia, have changed their address from Seattle, Wash., to Makawao, Maui. They are living with Mrs. Webster's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Baldwin.

Richard Hobron Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baldwin, who was for two years at Lawrenceville Academy, N. J., is a member of the Senior Class at Punahou this year. He is preparing for Cornell University. Barbara Ethel, the second daughter in the family, also has returned to Punahou.

BINGHAM (H.) Mrs. Lillian C. Brown wrote in February, 1930: "My son, Robert M. Brown, is a Freshman at Harvard College and his letters indicate that he is finding his work and his life there pleasant and satisfying." His college address may be found in our roster.

Charles H. Crocker, of Kenilworth, Ill., brought his wife, Mrs. Hazel R. Crocker, into membership of the Cousins' Society in August, 1929. Their two sons, Charles K. and Donald W. Crocker, are also members. Charles H. Crocker is a great-grandson of Hiram Bingham 1st.

The two important items of news in the Cousin Hiram Bingham III branch are a birth and a wedding. The arrival of a daughter, Anne, on June 9, in the Woodbridge Bingham family, created Cousin Hiram a grandfather. The next day, June 10, Charles Tiffany Bingham, fourth son of Hiram III, was married to Kathleen Howell. In February of this year we were notified that "Hiram Bingham, Jr. (IV) has been appointed a vice Consul and is now at the American Consulate in Tokyo, Japan." He passed through Honolulu en route.

Mr. F. A. Edgecomb, who married May Sutherland, was appointed Superintendent of Lighthouse Service in these Islands in January of this year.

BISHOP (A.) Mrs. Margaret (Shaw) Humphrey sends us her new address in Columbus, Ohio. (See roster.) Her husband is professor of botany at the State University.

BOND (E.) William B. Storey, after an absence of four years returned to Honolulu in the summer of 1929 and is finishing his college course begun at Ann Arbor, Mich., at the University of Hawaii. He is living with his aunt and cousin, Mrs. O'Brien and Torlogh. The latter is a Senior at Punahou. Gertrude E. Storey is again teaching kindergarten in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Barbara Howard, elder daughter of Mrs. Edith Bond Howard, entered Smith College as a Freshman in September, 1929.

After the amalgamation of the Pacific Trust Co. and Bishop Trust Co. last summer, 1929, B. Howell Bond, who had been with the former company, opened an office of his own in the Stangenwald Building, Honolulu. He is acting as financial agent for investments, trusts, loans, etc. On March 31st of this year, Mr. and Mrs. Bond welcomed their third son, who has been named Renton and made a member of the Cousins' Society.

CASTLE (S. N.) William R. Castle, Jr., Assistant Secretary of State at Washington, D. C., was appointed by President Hoover in December, 1929, to act as special Ambassador to Japan during the period of the Naval Armament Conference in London. This appointment was to temporarily fill the ambassadorial vacancy in Japan at a time when diplomatic representation from America was imperative. Early in January of this year, Mr. Castle spent three days in Honolulu visiting his father, while en route to Japan. He was accompanied by his wife. We congratulate our Cousin on having so ably filled his State position in Washington that he was chosen for this important mission in Japan.

Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt spent six months on the mainland last year, June to December, for health and to be near Mrs. Westervelt's sister, Mrs. Helen Castle Mead. They spent the time mainly in Chicago and returned much improved in health. The Andrew Westervelts have concluded their European trip and returned to the mainland, with the expectation of being in Honolulu this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. L. Castle are now living across the Pali, having built a new home on the mountain slopes, with beautiful grounds and a commanding view. A housewarming was held early in August of last year. At the end of August Mr. and Mrs. Castle, their two daughters and son, also Mr. Castle's mother, Mrs. James B. Castle, went to the mainland. Virginia was returning to Westover School, Middlebury, Conn., for her senior year, and her sister Alice was just entering. At Thanksgiving Alice was forced to leave school on account of serious spinal trouble. After four months in a Boston hospital, she has made a splendid recovery. Their brother, James C. Castle, is studying at Choate School, Conn.

Christmas day, 1929, was the heavenly birthday of Mrs. Helen Castle Mead. Easter day, April 20, 1930, her ashes were laid away in the Castle family plot, Mission Cemetery, Honolulu, in the presence of a small group of relatives and old friends. Preceding the service, strains of "Nearer My God to Thee" came floating from the Kawaiahao Church organ and then Rev. Henry P. Judd read the always-comforting Words of Life and offered prayer. Mrs. Caroline Castle Westervelt, only remaining sister, placed the urn, wrapped in ti-leaves, in the ti-leaf lined box and twined plumeria leis around it. The spot was covered with many beautiful floral tributes. Although Mrs. Mead's longing during her last illness to return to her early home in "warm, sunny Honolulu," was not to be, the thought has been carried out in bringing her ashes home.

Henry C. A. Mead, son of George H. and the late Helen Castle Mead, has lately finished his medical course and is now a practicing physician in Chicago, as is also his wife. They have four children and are all members of the Cousins' Society.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Nef visited their Castle relatives in Honolulu early this year, but returned to Chicago the last of March. Mr. Nef is studying at the University of Chicago for his Master's degree and also filling a chair as junior professor of Economics. Mrs. Nef was Elinor Castle, daughter of Henry N. Castle.

CHAMBERLAIN (D.) We are adding a new Cousin, Mrs. Martha Keezer, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chamberlain, of the pioneer company of missionaries. Friends of Mrs. Keezer's visited Honolulu in February of this year and brought greetings to the secretary. Mrs. Keezer is reported to be a very energetic church worker in her home city, Denver, Colorado. We now count three grandchildren of the Daniel Chamberlains as "Cousins," George W. Chamberlain of Worcester, Mass., Mrs. John Honsaker, of Pasadena, Calif, and Mrs. Keezer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain have changed their residence during the year, having bought a newly built little home in the suburbs of Worcester, about three miles out. Cousin George has been persuaded to give up his regular employment and has busied himself with the necessary adjustments and improvements around his new grounds. These Cousins find themselves very happy in their "Dreamcote" home. Mr. Chamberlain has been untiring in his efforts to send our Society data concerning the descendants of Daniel Chamberlain. This is much appreciated.

CHAMBERLAIN (L.) Mrs. Helen Chamberlain Ives has been visiting her son, Charles G. Ives, in Richmond, Calif., since Christmas and becoming acquainted with her newest little granddaughter, Gloria. Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Sumner, of Rockford, Ill., suffered the loss of their only son, Warren Eugene, in June of last year. After a long, hard struggle with pneumonia, his three-year mission of sunshine, good nature and abundant life was transferred from the earthly to the heavenly home, for "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." He was a grandson of Mrs. Helen C. Ives and grandnephew of Wm. W. Chamberlain, treasurer of our Society.

Rev. Horace W. Chamberlain, until lately pastor of the Congregational Church of Thompsonville, Mich, suffered an illness in March, 1929, the nature of which interfered with his ministerial work. He has therefore resigned his pastorate and returned to his farm near Hastings, Mich.

John E. Chamberlain has for many years developed his homestead in Mt. Vernon, Oregon, raising sheep among other products. That he has been successful was shown last fall, 1929, when he was awarded first prize for the best Oregon fleece (the entire shearing from one sheep), from the manufacturer's standpoint. This was in a wool show at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland, Oregon, in October. Two hundred fleeces were entered in the show. The championship fleece will next appear at the Chicago International Livestock Exposition.

Mrs. Worth O. Aiken made a visit to her daughter, Martha Aiken Baker, in Springfield, Mass., last winter and while there welcomed her second grandchild, Alice Kate, born December 1. Mr. and Mrs. Aiken have no settled home at present. Their son Malcolm is graduating from the California Military Academy, in June.

CLARK (E.) A second son arrived in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Silverman, of Punahou Academy, on December 19th last, and was named Stafford Clark. Mrs. Silverman was Violet Austin. The Silvermans now have five children.

Margaret Austin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Austin, has been enjoying a round-the-world trip with her uncle Stafford W. Austin during the winter and spring months. They started from New York City, where Margaret had been living and are expected to arrive in Honolulu in June.

Mrs. Harriet Austin Baker has given us the following brief outline of the trip taken by herself, her husband and daughter Ruth during 1928-1929. (They left Honolulu for the Orient August 31, 1928, returned August 30, 1929.) "After a week crossing Japan, we just touched Shanghai, had nine days around Hongkong, a week at Manila and Baguio, then found a boat to the east end of Java. After three weeks in Java, for volcanoes and the Borobudur, we had a few days at Singapore, Penang and Rangoon and landed at Calcutta for three months all over India and Ceylon. We visited Dindigul, the foreign mission project of our Hawaiian churches and found the story of Kapiolani printed in Tamil and leis in use as an old Indian custom for special occasions, but called 'malais.'

"Leaving India we sailed up the Persian Gulf, with stops in Persia and Arabia, visiting Ur, Babylon and Bagdad. (Since our return, Forester Charles Judd has sent algaroba seeds to Arabia and they are reported already growing at Bahrein.)

"Crossing the desert by automobile, we found the 'Promised Land' a mass of brilliant flowers; went by rail to Cairo, passed thru Italy, Switzerland and Paris to London, England, and sailed from Liverpool to Boston, via Belfast, Glasgow and Halifax.

"We spent three months around Massachusetts, including Mr. Baker's thirty-fifth college reunion at Amherst, and returned to Hawaii via Los Angeles, with stops at New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Chicago."

Since their arrival at home the Baker trio have generously shared details of the trip with various audiences, and they have many unusual incidents to relate.

From Ephraim W. Austin's branch of the Clark family, comes word of the marriage of his youngest daughter Ruth Blanche to Edwin E. Loucks. Cousin "Eph's" seven children are now all married except his only living son, Harold W. Austin.

Mr. Ernest B. Clark, formerly secretary of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, has acted as Supervisor of the 1930 Federal Census for this Territory.

Captain and Mrs. Paul Sheeley Roper, U. S. A., welcomed their second child, Nancy Elizabeth, on December 4, 1929. Mrs. Roper was Harriet Balding.

COOKE (A. S.) Mrs. Maud B. Cooke visited her daughter Emily (Mrs. L. A. Osborne) early this year. The latter has moved into a newly built home in Bronxville, N. Y., which accounts for her changed street address. (See roster.) From there Mrs. Cooke motored to Florida to visit her youngest son, Fred, who is finishing his second year at Rollins College.

Douglas A. Cooke, since his return a year ago from Europe and the mainland where he specialized in the study of agriculture, has been connected with the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association. He was located first at the branch experimental station on Oahu Sugar Co. plantation and is now at the Honolulu station, as assistant agriculturist.

Mrs. Charles H. Atherton and Mr. and Mrs. "Ted" Guard were among the Islanders who circled the Pacific Ocean on the "Malolo" last fall, September-December. On reaching Manila, "Ted," who is a tennis enthusiast, was entertained with a game, at the invitation of a member of the Governor's cabinet. Mrs. Guard was Juliette Atherton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Atherton.

Mrs. Violet Atherton Harris is very happy in her new responsibility of mother to the baby girl whom she adopted last December. The baby's name is Laura Ann Harris and she is a great joy and comfort. She has been made a member of the Cousins' Society.

A little son arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Montague Richards in September of last year and was named for his father. This branch of the Richards family lives at Kohala, Hawaii. Grandmother Richards (May Atherton) had the pleasure of adding another life member, Herbert M., Jr., to the Cousins' Society and of stretching her annual membership donations, a dollar a year for each member of the family.

Frank C. Atherton, President of the firm of Castle & Cooke, Ltd., was a delegate from Hawaii to the conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations in Japan last November. Mrs. Atherton accompanied him. On their return in December, Frank was asked by the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and also the Pan-Pacific Union to tell of Oriental conditions as he found them.

The most important happening in the Frank C. Atherton family during the past year was the marriage of their only daughter, Marjory, to Dr. Francis J. Halford. The ceremony was performed in Central Union Church by Rev. N. C. Schenck, assisted by Rev. P. A. Swartz, the evening of August 29th. Prominent in the decorative effects were kukui foliage, night blooming cereus and pink plumeria. The bride carried white and lavender orchids with her white satin gown, while her five attendants and little flower girl carried sheaf bouquets of the shell-pink ginger and wore gowns of turquoise blue. After the ceremony, a reception was held in the garden of the Frank Atherton home in Manoa, beautifully decorated and lighted for the occasion. Dr. Halford is one of the rising physicians of Honolulu and is associated with Dr. James R. Judd. He has been made a member of our Society. The Halfords are living in Manoa Valley. On November 11th Mrs. Halford participated in the christening of the two airplanes which inaugurated inter-island air service in Hawaii.

Alexander S. Atherton, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, entered Tabor Academy, near Boston, Mass., in September, 1929. His brother Ballard is at Princeton.

Frank E. Midkiff, President of Kamehameha School for Boys, spent five months of his sabbatical year, 1929-30, visiting relatives and in school interests on the mainland, leaving Honolulu the latter part of October. A month later, Mrs. Midkiff (Ruth Richards), with the children, Robert and "Betty", joined Mr. Midkiff and enjoyed a thorough rest and change together. They all returned in April of this year, in time for our annual gathering.

Polly Richards, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Richards, has since October, 1929, been at the Stuart Club in Boston, studying vocal music. This is what she has "always wanted to do," Polly says.

The George P. Cookes have found the recently established Inter-Island airplane service of great convenience. They now are able to make the trip to Molokai in forty-five minutes by air instead of six hours by water as formerly. Dora Cooke, their daughter, graduated with honors from Vassar College in June, 1929. She spent the summer traveling in Europe and returned to Honolulu shortly before Christmas. George Paul Cooke, Jr., is at Cornell University and his brother, Judd, is a freshman at Yale. Thomas, the third son, is at Hotchkiss School, Lakeville, Conn.

Cards with the words "Mr. and Mrs. Amos Francis Cooke, 1879-1929," engraved in gold, told friends that these Cousins had reached their fiftieth milestone and would be "At Home November Sixth, 1929." From four to six that afternoon, a steady stream of relatives and friends called at the Frank Cooke home in Kaimuki to offer congratulations, and found the bride and groom smilingly receiving in the parlor. Under the able management of the two daughters of the home, Margaret M. Cooke and Mrs. Juliette Cooke Melanphy, the many beautiful and rare flowers sent for the occasion were artistically placed. A corner of the wide lanai was filled with golden chrysanthemums; orchids and gladioli graced the receiving room; baskets of flowers stood in the diningroom. On the serving table at one end of the lanai, the decoration was an exquisite beaumontia lei. Naturally, the refreshments were in yellow. During the day Cousins Frank and Lilianet were induced to sit for pictures in their garden. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke have two sweet granddaughters, Margaret Lidgate and Martha Annis or "Patty" Melanphy, both students at Punahou.

CONDE (S.) Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Hall, of Manila, P. I., were unable to make the Honolulu stopoff last summer. They spent their furlough on the mainland, voyaging both ways via Seattle, and visited first Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. Lucy L. (Conde) King, of Portland, Oregon. Mrs. King wrote in October, 1929: "My daughter and husband spent the summer with us and in the East visiting friends. They had a very happy vacation of six months. They returned here the latter part of September and sailed from Seattle October 3rd on the 'Empress of Asia,' finding it would inconvenience them to return by way of Honolulu." The secretary has lately received a happy letter from Cousin Melicent King Hall telling of the intended trip of our other long-time Cousins in Manila, Mrs. Cora Hitchcock Townsend and husband, and also of having met Cousin Paul A. Gulick who is located near Manila.

DAMON (S. C.) Roxor Damon (better known to many of our Cousins as Fred), after serving with the Bank of Hawaii for thirty-one years, resigned last fall. He was at that time Senior Vice-President of the bank. Mrs. Roxor Damon's brother, Frank Lawrence, with his family, made his first visit to Honolulu during the summer of 1929. Besides Mrs. Damon, Mr. Lawrence has his mother and two sisters living in Honolulu, Miss Frances Lawrence, one of our adopted cousins, Director of the Honolulu Free Kindergarten Association and Miss Mary Lawrence who holds an important position at the Library of Hawaii.

At the dedication of the beautiful new Chinese Church, on King Street, opposite McKinley High School, on June 16, 1929, Mrs. Frank W. Damon gave an address in Chinese and had a seat of honor on the platform.

Mrs. Violet Damon Putman, with her six-year-old daughter

Geraldine, spent the summer of 1929 in Europe in company with Mrs. Putman's sister, Mrs. Vera Damon Gadd and her little son.

Harriet Barbara, oldest daughter of the late Henry F. and Gertrude M. Damon, has entered the Dominican Convent at San Rafael, Calif. Her sister Heather also attended the same school.

Mrs. Julia Damon Giffard has resigned as chairman of the Grounds Committee of the H. M. C. Society, on account of lack of time.

DIBBLE (S.) Our Cousin Mrs. Grace P. Haven, after residing and teaching in our Islands for twenty-six years, left on March 26th this year, not expecting to return. Twenty-five years out of the twenty-six, Mrs. Haven spent at Maunaolu Seminary, Maui, in devoted service to Hawaiian girls. She had been expecting to remain at Maunaolu until the end of the school term in June, but resigned quite suddenly because of illness of her sister, Mrs. Mary P. Drum, in Berkeley, Calif. The sudden decision to leave in March gave Mrs. Haven only a few hours in Honolulu as she passed through. In that time she saw many of her friends at the hotel before the steamer Matsonia sailed at noon. Mrs. Haven expects to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Drum.

On arrival in Berkeley Mrs. Haven found her sister much improved, but says, "I am glad I came just when I did, for I am needed here very much. It is very beautiful in Berkeley. Our home is high up in the hills so that we have a wonderful view from all our windows of the Bay and San Francisco. I am well and glad to be here. Please remember me to all inquiring friends."

Mrs. Emily Drum Wilkie continues her work in the publishing department of the University of California, Berkeley, where she has had an important position for many years.

DOLE (D.) Walter S. Dole made his two grandchildren, Richard W. Dole, Jr., and Nora Ann Dole, life members in February this year. These are the children of Lieut. Richard (Dick) W. Dole, who was stationed at Pearl Harbor with the U. S. Navy for three years and is just concluding a year's post-graduate work at Annapolis, Md. In writing to the Treasurer from Springfield, Mo., Cousin Walter says, "I am still doing the same old thing. My headquarters are in New York, I live in California and I vote in Missouri."

During the summer of 1929, one of our Honolulu friends visited in New Jersey and called at the home of Cousin W. Herbert Dole and had this to say: "Mr. and Mrs. Dole live in a beautiful section of West Orange, about half way up Orange Mountain. They gave us a most cordial welcome. Their two young daughters were dressing for a party. They introduced their youngest, a very bright looking boy with light hair and blue eyes, just thirteen. Soon the girls came downstairs looking very sweet and pretty in their party finery. Winifred, the younger, has auburn hair. She graduated from the West Orange High School in June. Marian, the elder, has brown hair. She is a stenographer and is employed at an office in the city of Newark. In the late fall, she expects to go to Spain for a year, to act as stenographer for a friend of the family who lives there. Her parents think it will be a wonderful opportunity as well as an experience for her."

Renwick Dole Jones, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet R. Jones (Marion Dole), is running on the fast trans-Pacific steamer "Malolo," acting as assistant purser. The Malolo's short stay in port and his shorter shore leave gives Renwick little time to visit with his aunt, Dr. Emily C. Dole, or to see the island. Dr. Dole has moved from Emma Street, near the site of the former S. B. Dole home, to the Makiki district. (See roster.)

DWIGHT (S. G.) Samuel Castle Dwight passed away in Honolulu on February 28, 1930, after a short illness at the age of 73 years. For many years he was connected with the firm of Allen & Robinson and continued to serve as a member of its board of directors until his death. His wife died four years ago.

Mrs. Bernice (Dwight) Spitz has been serving during the past year as a member of the Board of Prison Inspectors. She was appointed to this office by Gov. Judd in July, 1929. Mrs. Spitz' brother, Joseph L. Dwight, is executive secretary of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry.

EMERSON (J. S.) After much study of Biochemistry, Oliver H. Emerson received his Ph.D. from the University of California, Berkeley, in December, 1929. He is now doing very good research work in the biochemical laboratory at this university.

Arthur W. Emerson, one of our Honolulu artists, in addition to paintings of Hawaiian scenery, has made an intensive study of Island types. One of his late productions of merit was the portrait of an Hawaiian-born Korean girl.

Lieut. Philip L. Emerson, after three years of service with the Asiatic Fleet in Chinese waters, was released from sea duty during the summer of 1929. He passed through Honolulu in August en route to the mainland for two years furlough and has been living in Detroit, Mich. His changed address appears in our roster.

Writing to the Treasurer in January of this year, Rev. Oliver P. Emerson and wife of Brookline, Mass., sent their aloha nui and pomaikai to all for the coming year, and said, "we get much out of the annual report. In fact it is an invaluable aid in keeping track of the cousins and friends." (Such expressions are encouraging to the secretary and recorder. Thank you!)

FORBES (C.) Theodore Forbes is finishing his second year of study at the State University, Columbus, Ohio, working for the degree in P.H. D. in psychology. He has also been doing part-time teaching for several months, at the University. Marion C. Forbes was transferred from Kauai to Oahu last summer and has been teaching during this school year at Waialua. This enabled her to spend the week-ends and holidays at her home in Honolulu with her parents and brother Fred. Frances, the second daughter in this family, expects to graduate from Oberlin College in June. Katherine, the youngest daughter, graduated from Punahou in June, 1929, and entered Oberlin in September. She is taking the Conservatory course and has made a fine record there so far.

GREEN (J. S.) On June 23, 1929, a bronze tablet was dedicated on Maui, to the memory of Rev. Jonathan S. Green "pioneer minister, teacher and agriculturist, under whose direction the Pokele Church at Makawao, Maui, was built in the middle of the 19th century." The William and Mary Alexander Chapter of the D. A. R. were instrumental in thus marking the church.

We are recording elsewhere the death of Mrs. Harriet Parker Green.

In March of this year Mrs. Rhoda Green Thayer and her sister Emeline left on a trip to California. Rhoda returned in April, but Emeline is continuing her visit with friends in San Francisco.

Caroline P. Green, in addition to her duties as assistant librarian of our public library, Honolulu, has for some years had charge of the library of the Hawaiian Historical Society, both housed in the same building.

GULICK (P. J.) Shortly after our annual meeting of last year, Mrs. Louise (Gulick) Robinson asked to be admitted to membership. We are glad to welcome this new Cousin. Mrs. Robinson is the daughter of the late Luther Halsey and Charlotte (Vetter) Gulick, and lives in Pleasantville, N. Y. (See roster.) She has two daughters, Charlotte and Louise. Her husband is Dr. Horace Eddy Robinson.

Hervey M. Gulick, of Ojai, Calif., was reported to us in March of this year by a fellow-townsman, Mr. Bristol, formerly at Kamehameha School. Cousin Hervey lives at the Theosophical Center in Ojai.

Mrs. Helen Gulick King, of Brookline, Mass., wrote in January of this year: "We have just adopted (in December) a son and named him William Gulick King. He was born March 2, 1929." Mrs. King is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Gulick who spent about six months in Honolulu recently.

On account of the health of Rev. Robert Whitaker, Mrs. Louise Gulick Whitaker and family have been located the greater part of the past year in Tungchow, near Peking, instead of their regular field at Lintsing, China. Mr. Whitaker's condition requires absolute rest and we hear it seems best for the family to return to the mainland. They are expected to pass through Honolulu in June.

When Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Gulick slipped quietly into Honolulu in October, 1929, probably very few of the "Cousins" knew just who they were and what they stood for; but before they left early in March, 1930, some of us were wiser. Mr. Gulick is the youngest brother of our Mrs. Frances Gulick Jewett and therefore a member of the family so closely connected with the origin of the Cousins' Society. Mrs. Gulick (Harriet Farnsworth), is the daughter of missionaries to Turkey. The name Gulick has stood high in the Missionary list for years and years; it also now stands high in the Summer Camps list. Maine and Vermont hold the camps started and carried on by Gulicks; the Halsey Gulick camps in Maine and the Edward L. Gulick camps in Vermont. Twenty-six years have the E. L. Gulicks been camping, gradually evolving a chain of three summer camps with Hawaiian names for girls and boys. At these camps, which are on or near lakes, the young people spend their time under careful supervision and wise training, in canoeing, swimming, tennis, horseback riding, hiking, handcrafts, etc., etc., with very special attention paid to the health and Christian influences of the youth. All this under the direct guidance of our Gulick Cousins, each new camp being entrusted to a member of the family. The camps are, in order of age, (1) Aloha Camp, for girls 13 to 20, directed by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Gulick; (2) Aloha Hive, girls 8 to 12, directed by Mrs. Helen Gulick King and associates; (3) Lanakila Camp, boys 8 to 13, conducted by Mrs. Carol Gulick Hulbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeds Gulick and two children, made a stopoff in Honolulu during the summer of 1929 to visit their relatives here. They had been on furlough to the mainland and were returning to their home in Japan. While on the mainland, Mr. Gulick attended and represented Japan at the American Board National Council meeting at Detroit, May 31st, 1929.

HALL (E. O.) Harry Austin White, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Oscar White, with his wife and baby, passed through Honolulu en route to Manila last October. Harry is connected with the California Packing Corporation and travels in the interests of the pineapple industry.

Tommy Hall, only son of Edwin O. Hall, of Bangor, Maine, spent the winter and spring months in Honolulu with his aunts Mrs. Florence (Hall) Macintyre and Miss Charlotte Hall. While here he attended Punahou School.

Cornelia and Jean Macintyre left in August, 1929, for England. Cornelia had studied two years at the University of Washington, Seattle, and Jean graduated from Punahou in June, 1929. They have been attending Bedford College in London, where they have relatives. Mrs. Macintyre expects to join her daughters this summer and return with Cornelia and Jean to the mainland, when they will enter Vassar.

Mrs. Eleanor Gartley Wilson has sent us a change of address, from Paris, France, to Annapolis, Md. We take this to mean that Lieut. Wilson is to be stationed at Annapolis for a while. Mrs. Wilson and her two children, Talmadge and Jean, have been spending the last two years in Europe. Mrs. Ada Jones Gartley left Honolulu last November to join them there.

Richard ("Dick") Gartley surprised his many friends on April 18th this year by becoming a benedict. His bride, Miss Gertrude

A. Schuler, was a young school teacher stationed on Oahu. The marriage was performed in Central Union Church by Rev. T. M. Talmadge in the presence of close friends and relatives. A reception was later held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Ruth Gartley Knight. Mr. Gartley is a cashier in the Bank of Hawaii.

Mrs. Catherine Jones Richards visited the islands of Maui and Hawaii early this year and gave interesting talks to various women's organizations on the subject of Gardens and Gardening, her specialty. Mrs. Richards has consented to act as chairman of the Grounds Committee for our Society.

Marion Lewis, after her year abroad, returned to her home in Honolulu in July, 1929, and has been assisting at the information desk of the Y. W. C. A. Her brother Dudley is a Senior at Harvard. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Marion plan to attend his graduation in June. Elizabeth is finishing her Freshman year at Smith College.

On Sunday, May 19, 1929, there appeared in the vestibule of Central Union Church a memorial to Edwin Oscar Hall, of early Mission days in Hawaii, and his son William W. Hall, both of whom served as clerk of the church for many unbroken years. This memorial was in the form of a mahogany stand for the visitors' register and was equipped with pen and inkwell. It was presented by the five living children of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall, Charlotte, Seymour, Edwin, Florence and Philip.

HITCHCOCK (H. R.) It was good to see Mrs. Cora Hitchcock Townsend and her husband at our annual meeting on April 19. They have lived in Pasay, near Manila, P. I., for many years, where Mr. Townsend is teaching, and made a stopoff to visit Mrs. Townsend's brother, D. Howard Hitchcock and other relatives here en route to the mainland.

H. Harvey Hitchcock, our Society President, is a member of the Footlights Club and has taken part in several plays given during the year. His six-year old daughter, Helen Hester, also likes dramatics and was one of the children taking part in the pantomimes.

Helen Hitchcock returned to Honolulu last summer, after her year of special study in Philadelphia at the Academy of Fine Arts and accepted a position at Punahou School. She has been assistant teacher in oral expression and instructor of stagecraft. Her ability in these lines was demonstrated in her handling of the pantomimes at our annual meeting this year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rex Hitchcock have acquired a home in the Waiakea section of Hilo and spend part of their time on Hawaii and part on Molokai. Their youngest daughter, Mabel Eunice, attends school in Hilo and lives with her aunts, Harriet Hitchcock and Mrs. Mary H. Snow. Their four older children are attending Punahou. Mrs. Snow and her nephew, Frederick G. Schoen, left on April 9 for an automobile trip through California and adjoining states. Evelyn Schoen is reported as being in Rochester, N.

Y., at Strong's Memorial Hospital where she is "teaching student nurses and learning by experience administration work in hospitals."

Hildreth Castle Hitchcock, only daughter of the late Edward N. Hitchcock, of Hilo, was married on October 6, 1929, to John E. Walker, of Maui. The wedding was a quiet one, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. H. Moses, the bride being unattended. The service was read by Rev. Ruel Snider, of the First Foreign Church, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Mr. Walker is connected with the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Co. on Maui and the couple are making their home at Puunene.

HOLMAN (T.) Thomas T. Holman made his third visit to Honolulu in February of this year and stayed for several weeks at the Moana Hotel, Waikiki. He made the statement to a newspaper reporter that his grandfather, Dr. T. Holman of the pioneer Mission group, was the recipient of two feather capes while here in 1820-21. These were presented to the doctor by Kamehameha 2nd for medical services, and are still in possession of Mr. Holman's cousin, Mrs. H. F. Bassett, of New Milford, Conn.

JOHNSON (E.) Arthur H. Bindt, son of A. Rudolph Bindt, is interested in selling or exchanging old U. S. coins. His brother Walter, after serving for several years as quartermaster on Inter-Island steamers and the S. S. Malolo, passed the required tests and received his second-mate papers in March of this year.

JUDD (G. P.) Lawrence McCully Judd took the oath of office as the seventh governor of the Territory of Hawaii on July 5, 1929. He is the youngest son of the late Chief Justice Albert Francis Judd and Mrs. Agnes (Boyd) Judd and is the second grandson of G. P. Judd to serve Hawaii in that high office. George R. Carter, his cousin, was governor from 1903 to 1907. The announcement of Lawrence's appointment by President Hoover was the cause of much rejoicing throughout the territory. The popularity of his choice was clearly demonstrated at a large reception held at Washington Place on the evening of his inauguration when a large "hookupu" was given him by the Hawaiians of the community.

Florence (Hackett) Judd, his wife, has been an unfailing worker in St. Andrew's Church for many years. She was a delegate to the Episcopal convention held in San Francisco this spring.

Helen Judd, their oldest daughter, is finishing her second year at Mills College, Piedmont, Calif. Next year, her sister, Betty, who graduates from Punahou in June, will join her as a freshman. Betty helped in the christening of two airplanes at the inauguration of inter-island commercial air service on November 11th last. She broke her bottle over the amphibion named "Hawaii."

Sophie Janet, the third girl in Lawrence's family, will be a senior at Punahou next year. She has been elected President of the Hui Eleu and Commissioner of Girls' Athletics. Lawrence M. Judd, Jr., is in his last year at Hanahauoli School and will go to Punahou next fall in the eighth grade.

Agnes E. Judd left February 1, 1929, on her first trip to the mainland in many years, to be gone four months. Most of her time will be spent in Southern California but she will return by way of Berkeley and San Francisco.

Albert Francis Judd and his wife Madeline (Hartwell) Judd celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary on July 21, 1929, with a luau at "Kealohiwai," windward Oahu, where their honeymoon had been spent. Fifty of their friends and relatives came, many of whom had attended their wedding at the old Hartwell home in 1899.

Dorothy, their younger daughter, was married in Central Union Church, Honolulu, on August 29, 1929, to William Alexander Jackson of Pasadena, Calif., and Williams College, Mass., class of 1927. The services were read by Rev. Henry P. Judd, uncle of the bride, and the organ was played by Judd Cooke, a cousin. Bernice Judd was her sister's maid-of-honor and other "cousins" in the wedding party were Mary D. Alexander, Barbara Carter, Montgomery Clark, Albert F. Judd, 3rd, and H. E. Podmore. The church was decorated with yellow allamanda and the large-leaf a-pe plant in the chancel. Maile leis from Puna, Hawaii, were placed on the pews and tied in huge bows about the pillars on each side of the church. The Jacksons have spent the winter in Altadena, Calif., where Mr. Jackson has done research work at the Huntington Library in San Marino. In the spring they moved to New Haven, Conn., and may be reached there through the Yale Press.

Albert F. Judd left in March on a four months' business and pleasure trip to the Atlantic Coast. He spent a day with his daughter, Dorothy, and her husband, Willaim Jackson, in Altadena, Calif., and visited his son, Albert, who is at Deerfield Academy, Deerfield, Mass.

Allan Wilkes Judd died in California on February 27, 1929. He had been in poor health for some time, although death came suddenly. He is survived by his widow and three sons. They make their home in Berkeley, Calif., with Mrs. Judd's brother, Edward McCarthy. The two oldest boys are working. Allan, Jr., is a machinist like his father and Edward is learning to be a chemist. The youngest, who is called Boyd after his Grandmother Judd, is only twelve years old and is still in school.

Stuart, older son of Henry P. Judd, has been at the California Institute of Technology, in Pasadena, studying engineering.

Charles Sheldon Judd and his wife leave in June for Australia in order that "Charlie" may recover completely from his serious illness of last January.

Gerrit Parmele Judd, 4th, was the guest of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Cooke, during the summer of 1929. It was Parmele's first trip to Hawaii and he enjoyed meeting his many relatives whom he had never seen before. He had just finished his first year at Hotchkiss School at Lakeville, Conn., as a member of the lower middle class.

Sybil (Crehore) Scribner left in February for her first visit to Boston since her marriage in 1921.

The George R. Carters moved into their new home on the Pali Road just before Christmas, 1929. Designed by the Goodhue Associates of New York, it is one of the finest homes in Honolulu. Their old house, long a landmark on the corner of Judd and Liliha Streets, has been torn down.

George Robert Carter, Jr., is learning the banking business and will be in New York for two years with the Guarantee Trust Co.

Jack Galt is on the Board of Managers of the Cousins' Society.

Carter Galt and his wife are the parents of a son, Beverly Randolph, born January 27, 1929.

Hester (Pratt) Richardson and her husband with their two small sons have moved to Honolulu. Mr. Richardson has been transferred from Maui to the town office of the California Packing Company.

Dudley Pratt has been made a member of the law firm of Smith, Warren, Stanley and Vitousek. On September 9, 1929, Dudley and his wife welcomed small Joan Catherine into their family. Their first child, Charles Dudley, Jr., is now two and a half years old.

Both Catharine (Pratt) Field and her older son, Peyton, took part in the pantomimes given at the annual meeting of the Cousins' Society.

The George Shermans returned in January from a delightful year spent traveling for the most part in Europe.

Cousin Julie (Judd) Swanzy has shown her unfailing interest in the Cousins' Society by making several generous donations to our library. Her daughter, Rosamond (Swanzy) Morgan serves on our Board of Managers and as chairman of the library committee.

The Harry Vincents and their four children have moved from Lahaina to Wailuku, Maui. (See roster.)

The two Aden children, Martin Judd and Winifred, have gone to Vallejo, Calif., to be with their father's people.

Cousin Laura (Wilder) Wight and her daughter, Ella (Wight) Stephens left Honolulu in March for several months in Europe, going by way of the Panama Canal.

Francis Wight, son of Frank Wight, has been a freshman at the University of Washington. His younger brother, Sam, who is prominent in student activities at Punahou, will be captain of the football team next year.

Cousins Gerrit and Lillian Wilder returned in March from a year's visit in the South Seas. While at Tahiti they acquired an island five acres in extent and about thirty-five miles from the town of Papeete.

Alatau Wilder brought his wife, who was Louise Clerc of New York, to spend Christmas, 1929, in Honolulu with his father, S. G. Wilder, and his sister's family, the Douglas Blyths. During their six weeks' visit, Alatau introduced his wife to his many relatives in the islands. They are now in Hartford, Conn., where Alatau is connected with Stern and Co., a firm which is in the radio business.

Helen Kinau Wilder has returned to California after some months in China. She stopped off in Honolulu for a few days en route.

James Austin Wilder attended the Boy Scout Jamboree at Birkenhead, England, in August, 1929. Upon his return to Honolulu, he was taken seriously ill but his many friends will be happy to know that he has recovered sufficiently to receive visitors at his home at Waikiki.

KINNEY (H.) Maud Kinoole Kinney wrote from her new address in Copenhagen, Denmark, September 15, 1929: "I received some time ago a copy of the Mission Society book. It is very interesting to hear news of all the "Cousins" when one is so far away from Hawaii. I spent five months at the Riviera after Mother's death. Now I am settled for a year in an artistic apartment and hoping my health will permit me to continue my lessons on the piano. Please find enclosed a dollar. My brother (Henry W. Kinney) spent one week in Copenhagen. His oldest son, Charles Bishop, is now his private secretary at Dairen. His children are rather scattered."

Miriam Kinney, daughter of Henry W. Kinney, spent her summer vacation visiting her father in Dairen, Manchuria. This was shortly after her father's return from his world trip, which took him to Copenhagen, as mentioned above. Miriam is teaching again at the public school of Kealia, Kauai.

LOOMIS (E.) Cousin May E. Loomis has had a trying year, owing to her own ill health and family afflictions, but she has bravely faced the situation. In January she wrote, "The various messages from others were all helpful and I was pleased, though could not show it," adding, "my little home is dear, so thankful it is still mine."

LYMAN (D. B.) Mrs. Helen Lyman Greer sends word of the birth of her second grandson, Judson Burrows Martin, born April 27, 1929.

Howard B. Lyman, second son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Francis A. Lyman, went to Los Angeles, Calif., and claimed as his bride Miss Barbara Rogde on August 29, 1929. The ceremony was performed in a beautiful Beverly Hills garden at four o'clock, near a fountain filled with chrysanthemums, dahlias and asters, which were continually sprayed. Green was the shade used with the bride's white chiffon dress, the groom being all in white. A white carnation lei was worn by the bride and there was singing before and during the ceremony by a trio of Hawaiian voices. Their wedding trip was a drive across the continent in their car. Mr. and Mrs. Lyman returned to Honolulu in November and have been living in an apartment on Pacific Heights. Howard is employed by the Hawaiian Pineapple Co.

Mrs. Mary T. Lyman, second wife of our Cousin David B. Lyman, of Stockton, Calif., entered the Higher Life on August 17, 1929. "Mrs. Lyman possessed a particularly cordial and sincere personality which blended perfectly with her charming rural home in which Mr. and Mrs. Lyman shared their hospitality with a host of friends. In addition to her devotion to her home, Mrs. Lyman found time for church and welfare work and the loss of her active membership in St. John's Episcopal Church will be keenly felt in that congregation."

Less than a year previous to her death, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman started a Mission Church School at Terminous, Calif., twenty miles from their home in Stockton. This was in response to an urgent call for religious instruction in that agricultural district. Services were first held in the public school house. The congregation consisted of workers in the fields, a large proportion being Japanese.

After the death of his wife, Mr. Lyman went nobly on with the project, enlisting the support of his friends but assuming the expense of a church building himself, and to assure its future, arranged an endowment. On Sunday, February 23, 1930, he witnessed and took part in the dedication of the building, a memorial to his wife. The church was named Emmanuel, for the parish church in La Grange, Ill., founded by Mr. Lyman's father and mother, and an earlier Emmanuel in his mother's birthplace, La Grange, Tenn.

Then to complete the transaction, Cousin David made the best gift of all, himself, and now has "the expectation of ministering as a priest to the congregation he has created and in which he is so deeply interested." Thus has another of the third generation of the Hawaiian Mission responded to his inheritance, the missionary inheritance from David Belden and Sarah Joiner Lyman, who gave their lives to the enlightenment and training of Hawaiian boys on the island of Hawaii from 1836 to 1884.

The address of Mrs. Edith Rowe Lyman and two sons, in New York City, has been changed. (See roster.) Mrs. Lyman writes of living in the same house with Cousin Dorothy Rowell.

Rebecca Lyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus A. Lyman, of Hilo, is now in her third year at the University of Hawaii and is living on the campus. She is enjoying her work in art under Prof. H. M. Luquiens, and has been one of a class of etchers to visit the Old Mission grounds this spring to sketch our old Frame House and the new City Hall across the street.

Rebecca's brother, Francis, graduated from the Hilo High school in June, 1929, and entered the University of Hawaii in September. His ambition and over-application to study, however, cut short his work and he was forced to return home for the remainder of the school year. He hopes to return next year.

Clarice M. Lyman, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H.

Lyman, of Hilo, Hawaii, was united in marriage on May 25, 1929, to L. D. Sweetman, of the same place. Mrs. Sweetman had been acting as a nurse at the Hilo Memorial Hospital for a year. Mr. Sweetman is in charge of the Hilo Typewriting Co. They are living in the Kaumana part of Hilo, where Mrs. Sweetman's parents have lived for many years.

Ruth J. H. Lyman, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Lyman, of Honolulu, has been in Portland, Oregon, since September of last year, 1929, studying and getting experience in public health and welfare work.

Major Albert K. Lyman has been transferred from Washington, D. C., to Manila, P. I. He passed through Honolulu en route, with his wife, in February, and is stationed at Fort McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Lyman gave up their home in Wilmette, Ill., last fall and have been living with Mrs. Lyman's parents since then in Winnetka, Ill. (See roster for street address.)

In December, 1929, occurred a sale of land in Hilo which involved the D. B. Lyman homestead and the area back of that known as Halai Hill and Kaumana. This means tearing down the Lyman mission home, extending through its grounds what was called Church Street, and placing the entire tract on the market for homesites.

LYONS (L.) Since the passing of Mrs. Albert B. Lyons, at Detroit, Mich, last December, Lucia E. Lyons, who for many years devoted herself to her parents in their declining years, contemplates resuming her chosen field of labor in China. Cousin Lucia writes: "I am hoping to see some of you in the fall if I return to China, as I now expect to. I should like to stop in Honolulu but am afraid that this will not be possible, and will be only a few hours there."

Mrs. Emma Lyons Doyle sold the family homestead near Punahou School last summer and has since September, 1929, been occupying an apartment on Liholiho Street, not far from the old Lunalilo Home site. With the beginning of the 1929 school year, Emma secured a transfer from Kauluwela school, where she taught many years, to the new Lunalilo School in the Pawaa district, thus bringing her work much nearer to her home.

POGUE (J. F.) Wm. F. Pogue, of Wailuku, Maui, sends the following family news: "During the year 1929 there were a few changes in our branch of the Pogue tribe. On May 30, 1929, a baby girl was born to Coville and his wife Ida. On October 15 last, the youngest of our numerous children, Frances, was married in San Francisco to Harold Relph, a San Jose boy. On Friday, the 13th of December, there came to our son Charlie and his wife a little boy, whom they named Robert Charles.

"My sister 'Aunty Jenny,' still resides at the same old place, 350 University Street, Santa Clara, with her nephew John F. and her niece Ruth E., the only single ones left of our children.

"Our daughter Jenny after her marriage two years ago located with her husband, George Jepsen, on a fruit farm at Cupertino, Calif. Fred McC. and his wife Minnie moved from Honolulu to Makawao, Maui, last July (1929).

"Cory Coville, his wife Ida and children, together with the old patriarch, moved from Kailua to Wailuku during 1928."

Changed street addresses for Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pickett and Wm. F. Pogue, Jr., appear in our roster. Hervey W. Pogue's present address is 570 West 204th Street, New York City. (Not in roster as he is not a member of H. M. C. S.)

Cousin Wm. Sr. (who calls himself the patriarch) has also sent an account of his trip to California in 1928, which he refers to as the greatest experience of his life. We are sorry not to give it in full. The much abbreviated story follows:

"Leaving Kahului wharf at 4 p. m. of October 5, 1928, on the freighter Manulani, we arrived in San Francisco Bay and docked Sunday morning the 14th, where every one of our immediate family in California met me. It had been thirty-two years since my last visit to San Francisco. I had not seen my only living sister for twenty-seven years, and the youngest child not for eighteen years. Surely some reunion! The whole Pogue tribe followed to Aunty Jenny's home, where dinner was served. Dinner is hardly the right word, it was a 'luau.' Surrounded by thirteen children, their wives or husbands, a granddaughter and sister Jenny, we had our first meal all together on California soil.

"Thanksgiving Day there was another getting together of the Clan and another 'luau.' Christmas Day was the greatest and happiest, I believe, of my life. From seven o'clock Christmas morning until two o'clock the next morning the tribe had the old people on the pleasure wagon. Christmas evening these grown up children of ours gathered around the piano and sang Hawaiian songs winding up with Aloha Oe and Star Spangled Banner. My, but I surely was a proud old patriarch seeing and hearing all those grown up young people and knowing they were all mine.

"A brand new Reo Flying Cloud carried us on almost daily trips within a radius of two hundred and fifty miles of Santa Clara, my headquarters all of the time I was gone, just six months.

"Immediately after noon on New Year's day, my sister, son Jack, daughters Ruth and Frances and I started in the Reo for Yosemite Valley. Parts of three days and two nights were spent in the valley. One experience was a snow storm. Not one of our party, but myself, had ever seen snow falling before. Wonderful, wonderful scenes and scenery!

"We visited Santa Cruz several times. Near there called on Mrs. Minnie Kinney Dodge. Visited Del Monte Hotel and grounds, drove through the Seventeen Mile Drive, lunched at Point Lopas, through Monterey, etc. Many, many of just such trips did we take.

"The last week in March, son Jack, daughters Ruthie and Frances and I took a two weeks' trip south. Spent four days in Los Angeles, two days at San Diego, crossing into Mexico. Crossed the Imperial Valey into Arizona, then into the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. Sixteen days away from Santa Clara, fourteen days driving 2,968 miles without an accident or a flat tire.

"On the 19th of April, bidding farewell to all of the Clan, who were again on the dock to bid me Godspeed, I boarded the same Manulani and sailed into the setting sun."

RICE (W. H.) Mrs. Dora Rice Isenberg is much interested in the newly formed avian society, Hui Manu, and has done much already to get song birds introduced on Kauai, where she lives. In recognition of her efforts along this line, Mrs. Isenberg has been made a vice-president of the society mentioned.

News of the marriage of Paul Kennedy De La Vergne, of Los Angeles, Calif., only son of the late Paul F. De La Vergne, has been received from his mother, Mrs. Clara K. (De Le Vergne) Thompson. The bride was Miss Alice Anderson, of Beverly Hills, Calif. The wedding took place on February 14th of this year.

Mrs. Juliet Rice Wichman and family are making their home on Kauai, having moved from Honolulu last year. Mr. Wichman is in charge of a ranch near Kapaa. Their new ranch home, "Pihanakalani," was opened with a housewarming and appropriate ceremonies on November 16, 1929. The two little sons, Hobey and Charlie, lighted the first home fire in the large fireplace and "Mother" Rice bespoke in Hawaiian the gift of the "growing hand" upon Mrs. Wichman and success to Mr. Wichman in his ranch work. The house is unique and beautiful in its design and setting. Cousin Juliet has for several years been making a study of the ancient methods and customs of planting food crops by the Hawaiians. In February of this year she gave an interesting talk on this subject at the Honolulu Academy of Arts.

Mrs. J. C. Plews (Edith Rice) visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rice, on Kauai, during the summer of 1929. Mrs. Plews' home is in Shanghai, China. She has moved from Kinnear Road and her address is now much longer. (See roster.)

"Mother" Rice (Mrs. W. H. Rice, Sr.), of Lihue, Kauai, not to be outdone by her fellow townsman, George N. Wilcox, flew from Kauai to Honolulu in November of last year, at the age of eighty-two and was thrilled at the experience. Mother Rice has welcomed during the past year two new great-grandchildren.

Anna Margaret, their second daughter, was born in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay A. Faye, June 14, 1929. Mrs. Faye was Leilani Scott. The Fayes live at Kekaha, Kauai.

Mr. and Mrs. David Penhallow welcomed their first child on May 8th of last year, a daughter named Marion Scott. Mrs. Penhallow before her marriage was Anna Scott. The Penhallows, who were at Lahaina, Maui, moved in February of this year to Honolulu and are living in Nuuanu Valley. David Penhallow has a position with Castle & Cooke.

Harriet E. Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Rice, graduated from Punahou in June, 1929, and has been attending the French School for Girls, in New York City, during the present school year.

Mrs. Emily (Rice) Sexton, who lives in Hilo, has a beautiful home overlooking the bay, in the Halaulani tract, not far from the L. C. Lyman and B. D. Bond homes. Her two sons, Lloyd and Harold attend Punahou School.

RICHARDS (WM.) Miss Emily Williston has notified us of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Fairlie (Welman) Williston, wife of Samuel Williston. Since the death of his wife last September, Mr. Williston has made his home with his sister Emily in Cambridge, Mass. In March of this year Mr. Williston became a member of the Cousins' Society. He is a grandson of Rev. William Richards, missionary to Hawaii. From Cousin Emily Williston we also learned of the birth of Samuel Williston's new granddaughter, Elizabeth A. McLaughlin. This is the third daughter and fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. McLaughlin, who live in Bronxville, N. Y.

Miss Helen R. Brewer has helped us with needed addresses. Her niece, Cousin Grace P. Porter, is this year in Wenatchee, Wash. Mrs. Julia E. (Porter) Cape is in North Dakota, where her husband, Thomas W. Cape, is professor of Economics in the University. Mr. and Mrs. Cape welcomed their first daughter on August 31, 1929.

Prof. William F. Brewer's younger daughter, Helen Adele, was married August 31, 1929, to Arthur C. Heckenlaible and is living in Oklahoma City. Dr. Albert D. Brewer has moved from Terry to Bozeman, Montana.

Two years ago we mentioned that research had been made to definitely locate the grave of Rev. William Richards, and the conclusion was that his body had never been removed from the Royal Tomb in Honolulu where it was first placed. It is a great satisfaction now to state otherwise. Lately an interested friend discovered in the "Polynesian" of October 21, 1848, the following:

"The remains of H. M. late Minister of Public Instruction have been removed from the Royal Cemetery, and conveyed to Lahaina, to be deposited in a family vault which has been prepared at that place."

The above clearly refers to William Richards, as he was Minister of Public Instruction till 1846 and died in Honolulu in 1847. Our Rev. Henry P. Judd was commissioned to locate the "family vault" referred to, on his last visit to Lahaina, and did so, finding the grave marked with the name of Rev. William Richards in the cemetery of the Wainee Church at Lahaina.

SHIPMAN (W. C.) Soon after our last annual meeting, Golden Wedding bells rang in Hilo, Hawaii, at the home of Cousin William H. Shipman, for on April 29th, 1929, Mr. and Mrs. Shipman arrived at the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Although Mrs. Shipman's health had not been strong for some time, she was able to participate in an informal afternoon reception in celebration of the event, at their home on Reed's Island. The day was made happy for them by the expressions of love and goodwill of their friends. Their hospitable home was fragrant with many beautiful and rare flowers. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Shipman, with their six children and five grandchildren, further celebrated at a poi supper. Music was furnished in the afternoon by members of the famous Haili Church Choir.

Mrs. Roy Blackshear (Florence Shipman) and her husband visited the mainland in August, 1929, taking in the Amateur Golf Championship tournament at Del Monte, Calif., and then going to West Virginia to visit Mr. Blackshear's mother. The two children, Beryl and Roy were left with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shipman.

SMITH (J. W.) Mrs. W. O. Smith has built a comfortable bungalow on Bates street in the Ewa corner of her property. The old house on the corner of Nuuanu and Bates which she and her husband occupied for so many years has been torn down.

Hobron Smith and his brother, Billy, sons of Lorrin Smith, are at Montezuma School in Los Gatos, Calif., Hobron in his second year and Billy in his first. Their little sister, Joy, was killed last fall by a heavy truck. Another sister, Kathrine, boards at Punahou and spends many of her week-ends with her grandmother, Mrs. W. O. Smith.

Raymond Smith and his wife, May (Paris) Smith, went on Raymond's first trip to California last summer. They spent several weeks visiting friends and returned on the "Humuula," new ship of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., with which firm Raymond is connected.

His oldest son, Raymond Paris, has been at school in Southern California for the past two years. Alfred, his second son, has taken an active part in the model airplane contests in the territory and has won several prizes.

Alice W. Smith, the daughter of the late Fred Smith has built a home on Judd street on a part of the former S. G. Wilder premises, "Eskbank."

The Alfred T. Hartwells had a very happy month when their daughter, Mary Abbe, and her husband, Reed Pierce Anthony, made the trip from Brookline, Mass., to spend February in Honolulu. As Mary Abbe had not been here since she was a child of twelve and as her husband had never come before, they had an especially happy time. Mabel Hartwell has made the Anthonys and their two sons Life Members of the Cousins' Society.

Alfred Townsend Hartwell, Jr., graduated from Harvard University in June, 1929, and is now with the banking firm of Tucker Anthony Co., Boston, the same company with which his brother-in-law, Reed P. Anthony, is connected. Soon after his graduation, Alfred, Jr., went on his first trip to Europe as the guest of his cousin, Hartwell Carter.

Hartwell Carter is the assistant manager of the Parker Ranch at Waimea, Hawaii, of which his father, Alfred W. Carter, is manager. His younger sister, Barbara, occupies an important place in the ranch life and has organized a choir and an orchestra among the people of Waimea.

The Alfred Carters have left their home on the corner of Judd and Liliha streets and are living at 918 Twelfth Avenue at Kaimuki. They also spend a great deal of time at Kahala where they bought the James Dole place some years ago.

Charles Hartwell Chater, twenty-year-old son of C. H. Chater and the late Charlotte Lee (Hartwell) Chater, paid his first visit to Hawaii and his many relatives in the summer of 1928. Charlie is a student at a business school in Boston, Mass.

The only child of the late Juliette (Hartwell) and Olaf L. Sorensen has been made a Life Member of the Cousins' Society by her father. Charlotte, who is fifteen years old, is in her first year as a student at Castelleja School, Palo Alto, Calif. Her mother died in New York during the influenza epidemic of 1918.

Charles A. Hartwell, Jr., who was born at San Francisco March 17, 1929, is a full-fledged member of the Cousins' Society.

His brother, Alfred Steadman Hartwell, 2nd, or "Billy," spent part of the summer of 1929 in Honolulu as the guest of his cousin, Jack Galt. This past year Billy has been at Westminster School in Connecticut.

Martha Hartwell is in her third year at the Boston Art School. She has found the courses very interesting, particularly in sculpture, in which she has made great strides. Lately she has completed a fine head of her brother, Billy.

Rev. Paul B. Waterhouse, of Pasadena, Calif., has changed his street address. (See roster.)

Mrs. Ethel (Smith) Baldwin has had a stained glass window placed in the chancel of the church at Koloa, Kauai, in memory of her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. James W. Smith. The reconstructed church, dedicated in January, 1930, has the same simplicity which characterized the old church built in 1859.

SMITH (L). The dedication of Dillingham Hall at Punahou School, referred to in our last report, took place on April 26, 1929. This date was the sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, in whose memory the building stands. Three members of the Dillingham family had part in the ceremony. Mrs. Mary Dillingham Frear gave a talk entitled "Memories"; Walter F. Dillingham presented the key of the building to the Trustees and talked on "Hopes". Mrs. Marion Dillingham Erdman sang. Mrs. Frear also had a part in the play given for the opening dramatic performance, in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Frear made a trip to the Orient in the fall of 1929, Mr. Frear going as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations convention in Japan, after which they extended their trip to Korea, China, Sumatra, Java and the Philippines. On returning in February, these "Cousins" gave some most instructive talks to the stay-at-homes; one being a dialogue while dressed in Korean and Filipino costumes. Mary Dillingham Frear's book "Our Familiar Island Trees" appeared in our book stores just in time to become a most acceptable Christmas gift, last December. It gives, in small compass, the information one wants regarding the trees and shrubs peculiar to our Islands, and is illustrated.

Mrs. Walter F. Dillingham returned to Honolulu on September 27, 1929, with her three children, Ben, Gaylord and Betty Lou, after their year spent in Europe. Walter Dillingham met his family in California and accompanied them home. Lowell Dillingham, the oldest son in this family, was left at Middlesex School, Concord, Mass. The others are attending Punahou. Mrs. Dillingham was accompanied on the European trip by her mother, Mrs. E. M. Adams. On December 16, 1929, Walter F. Dillingham was re-elected to the presidency of the Honolulu Council of Boy Scouts, for his eighth consecutive term.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Dillingham met their two older sons on the mainland last summer, 1929, and with them spent the vacation months in Europe. Walter Hyde, the oldest, is studying at the University of Washington, Seattle, Wash., and Harold Jr. is at Groton School, Groton, Mass. Harold Dillingham, Sr., and his sons are enthusiastic yachtsmen, sailing their own yacht, with other "Cousins" at Pearl Harbor.

Two weddings have occurred in the Erdman branch of this family during the past year. On May 25, 1929, Louise, oldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John P. Erdman, became the bride of Charles J. Henderson. By a strange fate, four days previous to the wedding, Mr. Erdman met with an accident and was laid up in the hospital with a broken leg, which prevented him from officiating at the ceremony at Central Union church. His place was taken by the bride's uncle, Judge Walter F. Frear, who read the service. Harold Erdman gave his sister away. The bride's veil was one that had been worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Louise Dillingham.

In the bridal party were Dorothy Erdman as maid of honor; Jean Erdman, Marjory Atherton and Mrs. Charlotte (Rice) Walker as bridesmaids; and Marjory Erdman as flower girl. The bridesmaids wore gowns of rose chiffon and carried sprays of the pink shower. The maid of honor and the flower girl wore green and carried the same flowers. Easter lilies and long sprays of the pink shower tree decorated the chancel of the church. Easter lilies were also used at the pew-ends. After the ceremony a large reception was held at the Erdman home. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left for a wedding trip to the mainland a few days later, but have returned and are living in Honolulu. Mr. Henderson is with the firm of T. H. Davies & Co. He is a son of former U. S. Senator Charles B. Henderson.

On the 11th of September, Harold P. Erdman was married to Miss Mary Chickering, of Piedmont, Calif. The wedding was held in the Piedmont Community Church, and was attended from Honolulu by the groom's father, mother, sisters Louise and Dorothy, cousin Lowell Dillingham and best man Thomas Balding. The groom's father, Rev. John P. Erdman, officiated, the matron of honor was Louise (Erdman) Henderson and Dorothy was one of the four bridesmaids.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Chickering, an old California family. She had been a college friend of Louise Erdman. Soon after returning to Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. Erdman moved into the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Frear, and occupied it during the latter's trip to the Orient. They have since built a home at Waikiki and are living in the new Diamond Head tract.

THURSTON (A.) Mrs. Lucy Thurston McNeely, of Mooresville, N. C., sends her "best wishes for the Society" and says, "We always enjoy the yearly report. It is the only thing that keeps us in touch with our Thurston relatives. There is nothing unusual to report for my brother or myself. We are kept busy each with five lively youngsters." Cousin Lucy then inquired where she could procure a copy of the Life of Lucy G. Thurston.

For others who may want to get a copy of this book, the Secretary will gladly fill orders, as it is on sale at the office of the H. M. C. Society. Price $2.75, postage 24 cents extra. The edition is limited.

It was a happy day for Lorrin Andrews Thurston when early this year the Advertiser Publishing Co., of which he is the president, moved into its new building on the corner of South Street and the new Kapiolani Boulevard. The beautiful, three-story, long building is within a block of the Old Mission Buildings and is a great addition to our neighborhood. As Henry P. Judd said in the January "Friend", "we like good neighbors." Associated with Mr. Thurston in the Publishing Company are his two sons, Robert S. and Lorrin P. Thurston. Mr. Thurston has made his grandson, Thurston Twigg-Smith, a life member of the H. M. C. Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin P. Thurston welcomed their first child, Lorrin Faithfull, on May 25, 1929. This branch of the Thurston family lives on Dowsett Highlands, in upper Nuuanu Valley.

Harry A. Kluegel, with his wife and son "Jack", have returned to make their home in Honolulu, after a year and a half spent in Sacramento, California, where Harry was City Manager. He is now filling the position of assistant to the Director of the Budget for the Territory of Hawaii. Harry and Jack helped along the Thurston family roll-call at the annual meeting.

May T. Kluegel received her A. B. degree at the University of Hawaii on June 4, 1929, and then spent her summer vacation in Australia. May is a teacher at the Territorial Normal School.

Miss Jane Winne attended the Rosenwald educational conference in February this year, held at Hot Springs, Virginia. At this conference she presented an exposition on creative education in music and gave an account of the development of creative capacity of the children in Punahou Elementary School. Cousin Jane teaches music in this school.

Mrs. Ethel M. Taylor, mother of Thurston W. Taylor, moved her Flower Shop early this year, from Beretania Street to Park Street, in Nuuanu Valley.

TINKER (R.) Mrs. Mary G. Weatherup has very lately made her daughter, Margaret Gray Weatherup, a member of the "Cousins". Miss Weatherup is a librarian and lives with her mother in Rochester, N. Y.

WETMORE (C. H.) From Mrs. Catherine Wetmore Deacon comes word that "in October, 1929, Charles (her oldest son) and his family were transferred to El Segundo, Calif., and are happily located in a home of their own there. The eldest daughter, Katherine, is attending the University of California, in Berkeley, and is a member of the Alpha Sigma Delta Sorority at 2251 Hearst Street." The Charles Deacons had been for over a year in Texas, first at El Paso and later at Colorado, where Charles was engineering certain construction projects.

Cousin Catherine Deacon refers to "the old home in Hilo" of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Wetmore, which has been reconstructed during the past year and is now being used as the new Y. W. C. A. home at Hilo. She also refers to the Golden Wedding of our Cousins Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank Cooke, for as Kate Wetmore she was a member of the wedding party and should have liked very much to have been at the Golden celebration.

Just in time to be included in this issue, we hear that Mrs. Lucy Wetmore Lewis and husband, of Oakland, Calif., have moved to 274 Jayne Ave. Cousin Lucy writes, "We bought this new home and moved in last month (March) and are very happy here. We have a pleasant home and very nice neighbors. Are only four blocks from the church, on the hill above Lake Merritt. Last year and the previous year we spent the summer and fall in our summer home in Maine, going both ways via the Panama Canal, which made ten times we have been through the Canal and we crossed the Isthmus twice. We are not going east this year."

WHITNEY (S.) Our faithful Cousin, Caroline E. McCall, again sends her contribution and greeting. Blessed with a cheerful and thankful spirit, she "moves towards the sunset of life," and "remembers with joy" the few weeks, years ago, which she spent in the Paradise of the Pacific. Miss McCall is a cousin of our "Cousins" Wm. F. Pogue, of Wailuku, Maui, and Mrs. Emma W. Goodale.

Mrs. Emma Whitney Goodale, widow of William W. Goodale, returned to Honolulu in June, 1929, with her daughter, Catherine Goodale Warren. They brought the ashes of the late William W. Goodale, which were laid to rest in Nuuanu Cemetery, beside the grave of his son, Holbrook M. Goodale. Catherine spent four months with her mother in their Dowsett Ave. home, then left for the mainland to break up her housekeeping arrangements in Philadelphia, where she had been teaching. In December, Mrs. Goodale followed and the two have gone to Europe, in consummation of the trip that had been planned before the sudden death of Mr. Goodale.

Harry M. Whitney, a veteran at the fishing sport, made a record in July, 1929, when he hooked a 150-pound tuna off the Kona coast, Hawaii.

WILCOX (A.) In the passing of Samuel W. Wilcox, in May, 1929, the island of Kauai lost one of her native sons who had given about sixty years of his life to the upbuilding of the community and industries of that island. Mrs. Emma Lyman Wilcox, his widow, quietly passed her eightieth birthday on September 16, 1929, at her home in Lihue. Her health is frail.

In January of this year, Mrs. Ella Wilcox Fisher of Pleasantville, N. Y., had an inspiration and made her entire family members of the Cousins' Society, beginning with her husband, Galen M. Fisher. She has three sons and one daughter. The oldest son, Galen, Jr., is a member of the firm of Kent, Wetherill, Jordan and Fisher, of Philadelphia, brokers and underwriters. The second son, Gerald W. Fisher, has been in the islands for several years and is assistant manager at Kahuku Plantation, Oahu. He is "very proud" to be a member of our Society. Eleanor, the only daughter, is almost ready for college. Ralph, the youngest, is still in high school. We are very glad to welcome these Cousins.

Mrs. Marion Waterhouse Wilcox left Honolulu with her family on September 6, 1929, and is spending a year in England. She continues her interest in the Maemae district, Nuuanu, and before leaving for her trip had the satisfaction of seeing a new building finished and dedicated for Sunday services.

Leaving at the same time for England was Mrs. Daisy Rice Wilcox and her niece Eunice Scott. They will all be home soon, after a lovely year abroad.

Margaret Sloggett, eldest daughter of Etta Wilcox and Digby Sloggett, spent the winter months in Honolulu, then took a trip east to meet and come home with her sister Edith who has been studying at National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C. Dorothea Sloggett has spent the past year at home with her parents on Kauai.

George N. Wilcox, president of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., took his first airplane ride on October 31, 1929, at the age of ninety. He flew from Honolulu to Kauai and back and has become an enthusiast over inter-island air service.

November 25, 1929, was Founder's Day at Kauikeolani Children's Hospital, also the birthday of Mrs. Emma Kauikeolani (Napoleon) Wilcox, for whom the building is named. At a reception held that afternoon a portrait of Mrs. Wilcox was unveiled and presented to the hospital. This was hung opposite the portrait of her late husband, Albert S. Wilcox, who founded the institution in 1907. Mrs. Wilcox, the patron saint of this hospital, is affectionately known as "Mother Wilcox" to all connected with the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord P. Wilcox, and their daughter Alice, were among the Islanders who made the Pacific tour on the S. S. Malolo in 1929.

ADOPTED COUSINS

ADAMS. In another place we are recording the death of Mrs. J. Q. Adams, who will be remembered by many of the older members of the H. M. C. Society. Mr. Adams is a cousin of our late "Cousin" Miss Mary E. Green, so long a Christian worker among Hawaiian women. The Secretary has just received the following from Mr. Adams: "In 1920 when Mrs. Adams and I attended the Centennial of Missions in Hawaii we gave to the H. M. C. Society a Tapa Bed Spread that came to us in 1888 through my cousin Mary E. Green. As was explained at that time it belonged to Governor Adams and came to Mary for Mrs. Adams from one of her Bible women. As you will see from the enclosed clipping, my beloved wife went home last February. I am now very much alone in the world and must adjust myself for a little while to entirely new conditions. This means disposing of all unnecessary luggage. So I am sending to you for the Society three additional pieces of Tapa, which we have also had since our 1888 visit. At almost 81, life seems very lonely after almost fifty-three years of happy married life. But the separation cannot be for long and then will come the blessed reunion in the Father's house. With kindest regards and best wishes for the continued success and usefulness of the Society, cordially yours." Mr. Adams' address is changed back to Clifton Springs. (See roster.)

APPLEBY. Mrs. Grace A. (Colcord) Appleby sends her "Aloha Nui to all the Cousins," with the usual contribution from the Appleby-Port families.

BETT. Mrs. Jessie B. Bett has busied herself for over a year as housekeeper for the Training School for Missionaries and Church Workers under the United Church of Canada, at Toronto, Canada, while her two sons were in college at Guelph. Her elder son, Tom, graduated from the Ontario Veterinary College, at Guelph, April 30, 1929, and was married on September 28, 1929, to Mary Rowe Wallace. At last accounts they were settled in Montreal, where Tom has a government position as veterinarian. The younger son, Fred, also taking the veterinary training, expects to graduate in April of this year. Mrs. Bett, in writing to the Treasurer on January 31st of this year, says: "I trust this very wonderful organization (H. M. C. Society) will continue by its interesting and educational work to keep the members in touch with each other."

BECKWITH. Mary G. Beckwith sends her "aloha nui loa" with her cheek from La Jolla, Calif. Her sister, Martha W. Beckwith, arrived in Honolulu on February 7, 1930, for a stay of several months which she will spend in research work on Hawaiian legends. A gathering of old friends was held in her honor on February 24th, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Alexander, Manoa Valley. Prominently displayed in the receiving room was a puolo of fat proportion, carefully bunched in a ti-leaf stalk, bearing a gift of Hawaiian fruit to the guest of honor.

BABBITT. Mrs. Sarah (Sadie) Carter Babbitt returned with her son Howard to Honolulu in May, 1929, after an absence of nine years. In October she made her daughter, son and two grandchildren life members of our Society. These are Elizabeth Babbitt Spelman, Henry and Elizabeth Spelman, and Howard Carter Babbitt. In March of this year "Sadie" started off again to visit her grandchildren, who live in Cambridge, Mass.

BROWN. Francis H. I. Brown, a leading golf player of Honolulu, acted as captain for a golf team from Hawaii which successfully competed with an Oriental team in Japan last fall, where he acquired the amateur championship of Japan. His brother, George Ii Brown, is president of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry. George Ii Brown, Jr., entered Hotchkiss School in September, 1929.

CORWIN. From Dr. Arthur M. Corwin of Chicago, has come a new address for his brother Cecil S. Corwin in New York city. Dr. Corwin writes under date of Jan. 15, 1930: "I suppose my brother is still connected with the Rau Studios, 104 W. 42 St., interior decorating. My brother Charles A. Corwin is painting splendid backgrounds for marine and land animal groups at the Field Museum of Natural History here in Chicago. In the last Encyclopedia Britanica there are three or four beautiful reproductions in color of his work, with a short article by him." Dr. Corwin also sent his card of Christmas greetings, bearing three original verses. The Secretary much appreciates hearing from this busy Chicago doctor.

CROZIER. Mrs. C. T. Stevenson (Alice Crozier), with her husband and two children, Lois and Campbell, left Honolulu in May, 1929. Mr. Stevenson, in his official capacity with the Narcotics Bureau, was transferred to Florida for a period. They expect to return this summer.

DAVIS. Mrs. Mary H. S. (Carter) Davis, of Albany, N. Y., visited in Honolulu with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ranney C. Scott, during the fall of 1929. Mrs. Davis accompanied her son, Austin S. Davis and his wife, who have returned to the Islands to live and who have a home on Dowsett Highlands, Honolulu.

DELAPORTE. Word has just reached us as we go to press, of the death of Mrs. Salome (Schaffer) Delaporte on Good Friday. We have no details, but think she passed away in Chicago, Ill., where she had been living with her daughter, Augusta (Delaporte) Doescher.

DILLINGHAM. Prof. Frank T. Dillingham, his wife and daughter Eleanor spent part of Mr. Dillingham's Sabbatical year, 1929-30, traveling in Europe. Mr. Dillingham is connected with the University of Hawaii.

EDWARDS. Mrs. Mary Haven Edwards has made another granddaughter, Harriet B. Bellamy, a member of our Society, and says: "Harriet is now a student in Scripps College, Claremont, Southern California. Her mother, my second daughter, Polly Edwards Bellamy, has always had a deep interest in the 'Cousins' Society' and she is much gratified to have her daughters become associated with its interests and work. The presence of our cousin, Mrs. Grace Pierpont Haven, in Maunaolu Seminary, during these later years, has added to the feeling of acquaintance."

Mrs. Edwards also announces the birth of her great-grandson, Rulon Wells McOmie, Jr., and concludes her letter in these words: "I am grateful that we are allowed to renew and perpetuate our vital interest in our Hawaiian Mission Children's Society by adding our children thro' several generations, to its membership. With aloha nui."

FERREIRA. Miss Mary Ferreira was a delegate from Hawaii to the N. E. A. Convention last summer, 1929, in Atlanta, Ga. Before returning she visited her sister in Illinois and other relatives. Miss Ferreira has long been a teacher in the public schools of Honolulu.

FULLER. Miss Ellen E. Fuller never omits her "kokua" (contribution) to the Society, with her "aloha nui loa."

GILMAN. The J. A. Gilman family held a reunion in Honolulu during the Christmas holidays. Joe, Minnie and Cordelia, their daughter, came from Berkeley, Calif. The two sons, Atherton and Arthur, came over from Maui and Molokai, while Marjorie (Gilman) Nottage lives in Honolulu. Early in April of this year, Atherton Gilman and his family moved to Honolulu to live. They had been residents of Maui for five years, where both Mr. and Mrs. Gilman took an active part in community life. Atherton is connected with the Schuman Co.

GOODALE. News of the death of Charles W. Goodale a year ago, has just reached us. We are sorry not to have mentioned it in last year's report. Our sympathy is extended to David Goodale, of Reading, Mass., now the only surviving member of the immediate family of Warren Goodale.

Through Cousin Martha Beckwith, we learn that Mr. and Mrs. David Goodale traveled west last winter and were in Los Angeles when she, Martha, sailed for Honolulu the first of February. Their son, Francis, who was several years ago at Waialua Plantation with his uncle W. W. Goodale, is now connected with a sugar plantation in South America. Their daughter, Esther, received her M. A. degree from Radcliff College and is teaching.

HOLMES. Samuel Judd Holmes, of Montclair, New Jersey, whose great-aunt on his mother's side was Lucy Goodale Thurston, pioneer missionary to Hawaii, is making a genealogical study of his family branches and asked us to help him with Thurston and Beckwith data. He also sent for back reports of the H. M. C. Society and books pertaining to the early missionaries.

Replying to a question regarding his son, Warren Goodale Holmes, Cousin Samuel writes: "He lived for two or three years in Charlotte, N. C., but returned to Montclair, his native place and lives here now. Mrs. Holmes and I are unusually fortunate in having close around us, here in Montclair, all of our four children with their families, including ten grandchildren, the youngest of which (only) is a boy, John Goodale Tschudy von Schmid."

HOPPER. Miss Margaret L. Hopper left Honolulu in October, 1929, for Lahore, India, to visit her niece, Mrs. Dorothy (Peterson) Heinrichs, arriving there in time for Thanksgiving Day. She made the return trip by way of Australia.

KITTREDGE. Relatives and friends of the E. W. Clark family were saddened at Christmas time to learn of the passing of Maurice C. Kittredge (the Clarks and Kittredges are cousins). From his twin sister, Maude Kittredge Nichols, has come the tribute appearing under In Memoriam. Maude writes: "How thankful beyond words I am for the lovely visit I had with Maurice while in California just last Spring on my way back from that wonderful South American trip. Then in June Rose Cronise (her sister) came east with me and we had the best old summer together at my summer place on the St. Lawrence River. Mr. Cronise joined Rose in October and they returned together via Panama."'

In March of this year Mrs. Kittredge sold the Piedmont home and moved into an apartment in Berkeley, near her sister.

LOWREY. Mr. Frederick J. Lowrey celebrated on November 9, 1929, the fiftieth anniversary of his entrance into the firm of Lewers & Cooke, then under the name of Lewers & Dickson. In honor of the occasion, the employees gave a luau and presented their president with a gold dessert service. Mr. and Mrs. Lowrey live in upper Nuuanu Valley, at "Niniko," where they have beautiful grounds and frequently share their hospitality. Mrs. Lowrey was chosen to act as president of the Hui Manu (Bird Society) at its organization on March 10th of this year. The purpose of this new society is to rehabilitate our Islands with bright-colored and song birds.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan J. Lowrey, with their three children, Charles, Helen and Patricia, visited in Honolulu last summer, 1929. Alan spent three weeks, but his wife and children stayed two months in Honolulu.

Jane, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood M. Lowrey, is attending the Dominican Convent, San Rafael, Calif.

MACKENZIE. In January of this year Mrs. Robert Mackenzie, of New York City, informed us of the death of her husband, which occurred November 15, 1925. Mrs. Mackenzie wrote: "He left us four years ago in his eightieth year. He was able to continue in his pulpit until a few weeks before he left. We have a little chalet on the church grounds and live amongst our people who are very kind and loving as they always have been. Jean, the oldest daughter, the author, is unmarried and we two have a happy home."

In 1885, while Dr. Mackenzie was holding a pastorate in San Francisco, he and his family spent a vacation in Honolulu. At that time Mr. and Mrs. Mackenzie were admitted as members of our Society.

Referring to this visit Mrs. Mackenzie continues: "We had many friends on the Island who had been guests in the San Francisco home. Our vacation was a long playtime, until the day we left which was a day long to be sadly remembered. My three children had their first joy of running barefoot. When it came to the day of leaving on the steamer an unforeseen difficulty arose—the feet had grown bigger or the shoes had grown smaller. Poor children! Those tears were the only sad evidences in five long months of Paradise. We always intended to go back and renew opportunities, but we have been in New York for many years and though we go often to California we get no further in that direction."

The Mackenzies stayed at the William W. Hall's Waikiki home.

(Insufficient data prevents us from giving a sketch of Dr. Mackenzie's life.)

MERRILL. Mrs. Alice Thompson Merrill wrote in January, 1930: "At present I am in chemical research work in the Hygienic Laboratory, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C." In this vocation, Mrs. Merrill is following her natural inclination, and it is not the first time she has been doing chemical research work. As Alice Thompson, living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Uldrick Thompson, at Kamehameha School for Boys in 1915, she acted as assistant chemist at the Hawaii Experiment Station, Honolulu, and "made an enviable record among agricultural scientists."

MERRITT. With her contribution in January of this year, Mrs. Marie D. Merritt records her "pleasant memories of old-time Hawaiian friends."

MILLS. Mrs. George S. Mills, of Chicago, who has been an adopted "cousin" for many years, writes to our Treasurer under date of January 13, 1930: "I am always interested to hear from the Islands, tho' my relatives, the Snows, are fast disappearing. I do wish I had known that Carrie (Caroline Snow) was living in Los Angeles before her death. My brother would have been glad to have called on her." Mrs. Mills then reports the death of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Maria Vose, on December 16, 1929, Chicago, Ill., and says: "Mrs. Vose was in the 85th year of her age, but retained her interest in good causes and never forget to make generous contribution to them." Mrs. Mills is, we think, a second cousin of the late Frederick C. and Caroline Snow.

MOORE. Carol Lowrey Moore, second daughter of Mrs. Nellie Lowrey Moore, was married April 27, 1929, in Washington, D. C., to Lieut. Alvin Ingersoll Malstrom, U. S. N. A reception was given for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Castle, Jr. Mr. Castle and Mrs. Malstrom are cousins.

POND. Richard, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Pond, after a year at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., returned to Honolulu and has continued his studies at Punahou.

SEARLE. As reported last year, Miss Susan A. Searle retired in 1929 from her long years of service at Kobe College, Japan. She passed through Honolulu en route to the mainland and spent the 19th of July among her friends here. Her former pupils who had known her in Japan, invited members of the Gulick family and others on that day to meet Miss Searle at an informal luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. Miss Searle went from Honolulu to Claremont, Calif., then to visit her sisters in eastern states. Writing to the Treasurer in January of this year from Miami, Fla., Miss Searle says: "It was a pleasure to me to spend a day in Honolulu last July on my way home from Japan. I am spending the winter here with my youngest sister, but as my future location is still uncertain probably the address you have, care of A. B. C. F. M. (etc.), is safer."

SMITH. Mrs. Lucilla (Bates) Smith, of San Francisco, now in her eighties, has seven living children, eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Smith's brother was Judge Bates, one of the well-known early residents of Honolulu, a connection of the Judd family. It is interesting to know that the Munson school for Private Secretaries in San Francisco, was started by Mrs. Smith's second daughter, Lucile M. Smith, who died in 1923. The school is now carried on by the elder daughter, Juliet M. Smith, at its head, and one of the sons, Elliot M. Smith, as business manager. The school has between 600 and 700 students.

TERRY. Mrs. W. S. Terry, a member of the Board of Managers of the Hilo Y. W. C. A., gave the address at the dedication of this Association's new home, on November 6, 1929. Referring to the location of this new home, Mrs. Terry reminded her hearers of two of the early Mission workers in Hilo, "the revered Father Coan, whose home was a portion of this land, and the beloved physician, Dr. Charles Wetmore, whose home we have transformed into this house which is to be the center of our Association work."

TURNER. "The story of Maunaolu Seminary," written by our Cousin Charlotte L. Turner, appeared first in The Friend, and in June, 1929, was printed in pamphlet form. Miss Turner has long been connected with mission schools in these islands, and having lived on Maui many years, was well chosen to write the history of this school for Hawaiian girls which was started in 1861. She lives with Mrs. H. P. Baldwin at Makawao, on the site of the first Maunaolu Seminary.

TUTHILL. Mrs. Beulah (Logan) Tuthill and son Logan, of Chicago, spent a week in June, 1929, in Honolulu en route on a world trip. Saturday afternoon, June 22nd, several old friends met informally at the Chamberlain House to greet them. It was many years since Beulah had been in Honolulu, while her son was making his first visit. Logan is a student at the University of Tennessee. Mrs. Tuthill showed photographs of her eight-months old grandson, Gilbert Ross, Jr. The little boy's father is a concert violinist, standing very high in his profession, and is necessarily away from home much of the time. The mother of this little boy was Gertrude Tuthill. It was a great pleasure to old-timers who remembered Rev. and Mrs. Robert W. Logan, of the Micronesian Mission, to meet again their daughter and also their grandson.

VAN SLYKE. Rev. Lawrence P. Van Slyke's address has changed again. Instead of working amongst the mountain Mexicans, he has been made General Secretary of Religious Education and is in charge of the work of the Presbyterian Church in all Mexico. This requires his residence in Coyoacan. (See roster for full address.)

WATERHOUSE. Frederick Layman Waterhouse, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. P. Waterhouse, of Singapore, was married on November 23, 1929, to Miss Gwendolyn Argyle, of West Perth, Australia. Fred and Ethel (Carter)) Waterhouse arrived in Honolulu on a visit in March of this year and are occupying Mrs. Sarah (Carter) Babbitt's home in Nuuanu Valley during the latter's absence.

WELLS. Mrs. Mildred (Kinney) Wells and her husband are still living in Berkeley, Calif., where they find many other former Island people. That climate agrees well with Mr. Wells, but Cousin Mildred "hopes to wander back again to my loved islands and the old-time friends." She reports her son Herbert and his family well and happy in Tennessee, also Norman in Los Angeles busy and happy.

WALSH. Mrs. Marion Walsh Lohse sends us changed addresses for both herself and her father, in Oakland, Calif. Mrs. Lohse is the daughter of Edward M. and the late Julia Beckwith Walsh, formerly of Maui and Kauai.

Maurice Edward Walsh, Mrs. Lohse's brother, also lives in Oakland.

ZIEGLER. Miss Ida Ziegler and her sister Clara, had the pleasure of a visit from their brother during the summer of 1929. Ida

Ziegler then made a trip of several months to the mainland, going as far east as Washington, D. C., and then south to Florida and Cuba. The two Ziegler sisters live in Manoa Valley.

HONORARY MEMBERS

ABELL. Miss Annie A. Abell, one of our Honorary members, who was formerly in mission work at Ruk, Micronesia, and then for many years teaching in Tougaloo College, Miss., wrote under date of Nov. 5, 1929, acknowledging receipt of the annual report, enclosing a donation to the Maintenance Fund of the Society and sending her best wishes "for the success of the Society in all its endeavors." Early in January an interesting announcement was received, telling of the marriage of Miss Abell on December 19 to Mr. Miner Cavelier Williams. "At home after the first of January, 9 Arleigh Road, Douglaston, Long Island, N. Y."

SCUDDER. Rev. Doremus Scudder attended the tenth session of the League of Nations at Geneva in the fall of 1929, and sent a report of it to The Friend, Honolulu, which was published in the November issue.

SNELLING. Mrs. Libbie M. Snelling, of Penryn, Calif., formerly stationed with her husband at Ruk, Micronesia, is now in her seventy-seventh year, but maintains a deep interest in all forms of mission work. She lives in a cottage adjoining the home of her sister. Early this year her niece, Mrs. Susan Denny, arrived in Honolulu to do independent Pentacostal work among the Chinese.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CLARA SOUTHGATE ADAMS, wife of Rev. John Quincy Adams, died in Southern Pines, North Carolina, February 26, 1930.

Mrs. Adams was born in Wix, England, April 23, 1850. When four years of age she moved with her family to Rochester, N. Y., which, with the exception of four years, was her home until her marriage June 7, 1877.

Clara Southgate was a charter member of the Memorial Presbyterian Church of Rochester. At her marriage to Mr. Adams, she gave herself wholeheartedly to the duties and privileges of a pastor's wife and won the love and admiration of all who knew her. Humble, unassuming, never seeking her own, she became a leader in all the activities of the church. When her husband was pastor of a San Francisco church, Mrs. Adams conducted a Sunday evening meeting for boys and girls long before Junior Christian Endeavor meetings were thought of. During the years that Mr. Adams was chaplain at Clifton Springs Sanitarium, N. Y., her winsome and unselfish character helped the ill and discouraged into new life and hope. For fifteen years while her husband was connected with Auburn Theological Seminary, she became the friend and counsellor of every student and was loved alike by all.

But above everything else, she cherished and was the center of the home. Having no children, she entertained much and guests at her home have gone to all parts of the world to attest to her simple, unwavering faith.

With her husband, Mrs. Adams had gone south to escape the New York winter. A severe cold was followed by pneumonia and she passed away to become "a guest of God." Memorial services were held on March 5th at the Clifton Springs Sanitarium Chapel, Clifton Springs, N. Y.

Besides her husband, she leaves a sister, a brother, nephews and nieces.

MRS. M. JENNIE (WILLIS) AKIN, one of our adopted Cousins, died November 24, 1929, at her home, Fall River, Mass. She was born in Hilo, Hawaii, August 13, 1855, and was the daughter of Captain and Mrs. James M. Willis, of New Bedford, Mass.

Mrs. Akin became a member of the H. M. C. Society about 1874, but having lived away from these islands practically all her life we have seldom been in touch with her. Showing that she kept her interest in our Society and her aloha for Hawaii, she wrote the secretary in 1916, "The annual report always receives a warm welcome. I hope sometime to revisit Hilo, the beautiful city where I was born." We are indebted to her husband, Franklin S. Akin, for the data which follow.

Mrs. Akin was brought up and received her early education in New Bedford, then attended and graduated from the Friends School, Providence.

After her marriage to Franklin S. Akin in 1879, her home for the most part was in Fall River, Mass., where Mr. Akin is well known as the Superintendent of the Cornell Mill. Mrs. Akin was an active member of the Union M. E. Church of Fall River and had many fine qualities which endeared her to all she met.

Just five months previous to her death, Mr. and Mrs. Akin celebrated their Golden Wedding.

HENRY BALDWIN COOKE was lost at sea through an accident February 23, 1929, near the coast of California.

He was born in Honolulu August 27, 1899, the third child of Joseph Platt and Maud Baldwin Cooke.

Henry attended Punahou School and prepared for Yale at Hotchkiss School in Connecticut, graduating in 1919. He then entered Yale University and after graduating in 1923, returned to his Island home.

He worked for a year in the Hawaiian Trust Company, Honolulu, after which he traveled in Europe with his mother and sister for five months and upon his return went to work on Kahuku Plantation, Oahu. At the time of his death he was satisfying an ambition by studying short-story writing with a Stanford Professor in California.

Henry had an unusually sweet, lovable disposition and will be greatly missed by his many friends. M. B. C.

MRS. SALOME SCHAEFER DELAPORTE. Very briefly we have been notified of the death of this adopted Cousin on April 18, 1930, Good Friday, and burial on Easter Sunday. We presume she was with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Doescher, with whom she had been living in Chicago.

Only last year we recorded the death of her husband, Rev. P. A. Delaporte, a faithful missionary for many years at Nauru, Micronesia. Mrs. Delaporte is remembered as the attractive wife of this young missionary when they passed through Honolulu in 1899, with their baby girl.

The climate of Nauru was hot and unhealthy; food supplies poor and limited; the privations and trials were many and varied, but the natives were there waiting to be taught. Mrs. Delaporte at once became teacher, doctor and friend. She suffered ill health much of the time, but continued her work of teaching and visiting, traveling on the "missionary bicycle" at an average rate of thirty miles a week.

In 1907 the Delaportes took their first vacation, going to Germany, Mrs. Delaporte's girlhood home. They returned to Nauru with restored health, but again and again Mrs. Delaporte was prostrated and ordered to a cooler climate to recuperate, to Honolulu, to Sydney, once more to Germany, and in 1915 to Oberlin, Ohio, where her children had preceded her and were in school. In 1918 Mr. Delaporte was released from the Nauru Mission, the family was reunited and a new home established on American soil.

Mrs. Delaporte's was a beautiful life of loving devotion to duty and real heroism. M. S. A.

CHARLES WARREN GOODALE passed away in Boston on April 11, 1929. The oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Goodale and a grand-nephew of Mrs. Lucy Goodale Thurston, pioneer missionary to Hawaii, he was born in Honolulu, September 6, 1854. After the death of his mother in 1861, he was taken by his father back to New England, where with his two brothers and two sisters, he spent his youth in the ancestral home at Marlboro, Massachusetts, in the kindly care of Deacon David B. Goodale and his wife. Here the atmosphere was rich in all that is best of sturdy character, Christian ideals, and plain living, and thruout his life Charles Goodale kept faith with these early traditions.

He graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and followed his profession of mining engineering in various parts of the country until 1885, when he settled in Butte, Montana, as manager of mines of the Colorado Smelting and Mining Company. Early in the 90's he became associated with the Boston and Montana Mining Company. Upon the consolidation of this company with the Anaconda Mining Company, he became general manager of the Boston and Montana Section. Still later, he was made commissioner in charge of the Safety First Department, which position he held until his health forced him to cease from active work. In 1923 he was awarded a gold medal by the American Institute of Mining Engineers for his achievements along the lines of safety in mines, his department having been designated by government officials as the most efficient and well-managed of its kind in the United States.

Altho he never married, his essentially home-loving nature found expression in the home which he maintained for many years in Butte and over which for a time his sister Mary presided. He was held in warmest regard by old and young alike in a large family circle, by reason of his lovable, kindly nature and his own fidelity to the same high ideals he set for others.

It was a real affliction when serious eye trouble made reading impossible and cut him off from his greatest pleasure. The last few weeks of his life were spent in blindness and in great suffering.

At the same hour at which his funeral was held in Boston, memorial services were held for Mr. Goodale at St. John's Episcopal Church in Butte. L. W. H.

MRS. HARRIET FOWLER (PARKER) GREEN was released from months of weary waiting and helplessness, November 12, 1929, at her home on Judd Street, Honolulu. She was the third child and second daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Parker of the sixth company of missionaries to come to Hawaii, and at the time of her death was in her ninety-second year.

Harriet Parker was born at Kaneohe, Oahu, where her parents were stationed for thirty-five years. She received her education at the Royal School and Punahou and then taught in the public school at Kaneohe. She was a very good student and excelled in Latin under the instruction of Mr. George Beckwith.

On June 23, 1864, she was married to Rev. J. Porter Green, of Makawao, Maui, a missionary son whom she had known at Punahou. With Mr. Green she went to Maui and assisted her husband with the responsibility of Maunaolu Seminary in its early days. In 1869 the building was destroyed by fire and the school disbanded. Mr. and Mrs. Green then took charge of the Haleakala or Farm School for Boys, at Makawao.

Three of Mrs. Green's six children were born at Makawao and in 1869 one little daughter died there. The other children were born in Honolulu.

Mrs. Green with her husband and family moved to Honolulu in 1872, living first on King Street near the present Castle Kindergarten. In 1875 the family home was established on Judd Street, adjoining that of Mrs. Green's parents. There Mrs. Harriet Parker Green spent the rest of her days, a quiet, unassuming woman, a busy mother, a loyal daughter and sister, a devoted wife to the later, invalid husband, too busy for outside social activities, but faithful and courageous to the last. It was a great satisfaction to her daughters to be able to make her last years comfortable.

Private services were held at her home, conducted by Rev. P. A. Swartz of Central Union Church, and the ashes were laid in the Parker family plot of the Mission Cemetery.

ALLAN WILKES JUDD passed away in California on his fifty-first birthday, February 27, 1930. He was the third son and fourth child of the late Chief Justice Albert Francis Judd and Mrs. Agnes H. B. Judd and the first of their nine children to be called hence.

Allan was born in Honolulu and received his education at Punahou, graduating in the class of 1897. He then studied two years at Yale University. Most of his after life was spent on the mainland. The last twenty-five years he lived with his family in California, being connected with the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refinery at Crockett and other business concerns.

In 1907 he was married to Miss Elizabeth A. McCarthy, by whom and his three sons, Allan Wilkes, Jr., Edward Bailey and William Boyd Judd, he is survived.

The funeral was held on Saturday, March 1st, with interment in Sunset Cemetery, Berkeley. On Sunday afternoon of March 9th, Rev. Norman Schenck conducted a memorial service in Honolulu at the home of Mrs. Sophie Judd Cooke, at which the relatives, schoolmates and other friends of Allan Judd were present.

MAURICE COGSWELL KITTREDGE, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Kittredge, passed away very suddenly November 21, 1929, at Piedmont, Calif.

Maurice was born in Oakland, California, April 24, 1873, but while still a baby, 1876, the family moved to Honolulu, where we lived a couple of years, going then to Hilo.

Our education was in the little "Foreign School" till "the twins" were fourteen years old. The Hilo days have always been blessed memories. Mr. Baker was pastor at the Foreign Church and Miss Hattie Coan teacher at the school.

Maurice's spirit from little boyhood was one of indomitable cheer. Tireless in his energy in whatever he was set to do, from flying kites to weeding the front walk, he never flagged. In school he would literally hang on to the sides of his desk in his vehemence in singing "Pull for the shore, sailors, pull for the shore!" These traits, with his generous nature, his winsome smile and contagious laugh, won him a place in peoples' hearts and confidence wherever he went.

A keen business sense developed early and when the family moved to California, in 1887, he apprenticed in a jewelry store in Santa Barbara while in High School and soon was earning the great amount of $10 a week. From then on he supported himself, going through the University of California, his optical course and finally establishing his own independent business as optician in Oakland, in which he was very successful.

He married Miss Alice Hoag, of Berkeley, in 1900, who is now left alone as they had no children. Always fond of young people, Maurice was the life of a party and youngest of any!

In 1913 Maurice, his twin sister and their wife and husband respectively had a never-to-be-forgotten trip back to the Hawaiian Islands. In later years he had a trip to Europe, and just last summer into Alaska.

He had remarkably good health all his life. It was the greater shock in consequence when, having just stepped out of his car on an errand shortly before Thanksgiving, he was suddenly taken with a heart seizure and the end was instantaneous. A beautiful way to go. He was so happy himself, we need to carry on that beautiful mission of cheer where he left off.

MAUDE KITTREDGE NICHOLS, his devoted Twin.

In addition to his wife and twin, Maurice Kittredge is survived by his other sisters, Mrs. Rose Cronise and Mrs. Mary Peters.

MRS. EDITH EDDY LYONS. Edith Eddy was born February 4, 1849, at Mineral Point, Wisconsin, where her father was doing pioneer missionary work in a community of Welsh and Cornish miners. Removing to the east after a year or two, she grew up as the oldest daughter in a minister's family, living successively in several smaller towns of New York and New England. The family was large, the income small; strict economy must be the rule, but the children, from close association with their father, grew up with an enthusiastic appreciation of literature and with eyes to see the beauty of the world around them. Edith received also, in unusual measure, her mother's warm interest in people, a trait which was to become more and more prominent in after life. A residence of five years in Brooklyn, moreover, brought to all the family the opportunity denied of satisfying their interest in art and music.

It was upon moving to Detroit in 1873 that Edith first met Albert Lyons, the modest young professor of Chemistry who was living in the home of Dr. George P. Andrews. Their marriage proved to be a singularly happy one. A common interest in the beautiful things of life and a strong religious faith were the background of the home and a blessing to the two children.

The call to Punahou in 1888, brought the opportunity, long desired, of knowing the surroundings of her husband's boyhood. The life of the Honolulu of those days,—the warmth of old friendships, the simple and abounding hospitality, the freedom from ostentation, all met a ready response from her. Greatest of all was the joy of the whole family in the visits to the old Waimea home (the Lorenzo Lyons homestead), which to the children was a sort of earthly paradise. The ties formed in those years were never weakened by time or space.

Finally came the thirty-two years in Detroit, the earlier ones full of useful activity in church and community, the latter more restricted in range but still making the home the center of a vivid interest in all of life, from which the spirit of Edith Eddy Lyons reached out with ever warmer affectoin to her friends, following them in their joys and sorrows up to the very last hours of consciousness. Courage and hope flowed from her always, and these were her greatest gifts to those she loved. E. L. L.

MRS. HELEN KINGSBURY (CASTLE) MEAD, the daughter of Samuel Northrup and Mary Tenney Castle, was born August 5, 1860, in the Castle home on King Street, Honolulu. She attended Punahou School and Oberlin College, taking her third year at Oberlin when her younger brother, Henry, was a senior there. And there she met her future husband, George H. Mead, a close college friend of Henry Castle.

Three years were next spent in Germany, acquiring German, and nearly a year in Switzerland, where she gained an excellent control of French. Returning to the States and Honolulu, she taught French at Punahou for a year, then spent a year in Cambridge, Mass., attending lectures at the Harvard Annex for Women. She revisited Germany where her brother Henry was, again met Mr. Mead and was married to him in Berlin October 1, 1891.

Their first home was at Ann Arbor, Mich., where Mr. Mead was appointed instructor in Philosophy at the University of Michigan. From Ann Arbor they went in 1894 to the University of Chicago, where Helen Castle Mead lived until her death on Christmas day, 1929.

Helen's outstanding characteristic from childhood was a passionate devotion to freedom of mind, especially for children. She was an enthusiastic follower of Professor John Dewey in his Experimental School in Chicago and in all his revolutionary work in children's education.

Her outstanding influence upon those who came into the family (for longer or shorter periods) was that of giving freedom, freeing something within the person's nature that called for expression.

But her interests ran out beyond those immediately about her. She was a close friend of Miss Jane Addams and of many of the residents of Hull House. The same close friendship bound her to Miss Mary McDowell, head resident of the University of Chicago Settlement in the Stock Yards District of Chicago. What especially bound Helen to Miss McDowell was their common interest in and sympathy with the Negroes in Chicago and the country at large. Helen frequently said that her life in Hawaii with its many races and comparative freedom from race prejudice, was the cause of her great interest in the Negro's struggle to reach social emancipation.

It would be impossible to gather the names of the many young men, and especially young women, whom her sympathy and quick intuition have helped to their feet. She was interested in assisting whom she could in finding and being themselves.

Of Mrs. Mead's sisters and brothers, there are still living in Honolulu Mrs. Caroline Castle Westervelt, William R. Castle and George P. Castle. She leaves in Chicago her husband and their only son, Henry Castle Albert Mead, also four grandchildren.

Adapted from tribute of G. H. M.

SILA JOY SMITH, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin K. Smith, of Makawao, Maui, was run down by a heavily loaded truck on October 19, 1929, in front of the Makawao Post Office. When picked up the little life had gone to be with her grandfather, William Owen Smith, who had preceded her six months before.

Sila was the fourth child in the family and was specially bright and promising, with an unusual talent for drawing. Her birth brought such cheer into the family that Joy became part of her name. Her father and two older brothers were away on the mainland when this sorrow came to the mother.

REV. ANTONIO VICTURINO SOARES was born February 10, 1860, in the Azores Islands, and died March 19, 1930, in Honolulu.

As a young man, he with other Portuguese residents in Madeira, was influenced by a Scotch missionary doctor and became a Protestant. Because of bitter opposition, these families crossed to America and settled in the State of Illinois. In this colony, young Antonio Soares, an earnest Christian worker in the Springfield Portuguese Church, was found in 1890 by Rev. C. M. Hyde of Honolulu and persuaded to come and take up work here. Mr. Soares arrived in Honolulu with his wife and one child, September 19 of that year and under the Hawaiian Board began the organization of Protestant work among his own nationality.

His first attempt was in Fowler's Yard, the then slum section of Honolulu, in a Sunday School already established by workers from Central Union Church. In June, 1891, he was ordained. As the work grew, land was secured for a church near the Queen's Hospital, on Punchbowl Street. The cornerstone of this church was laid in 1896.

For forty years Mr. Soares gave his best efforts and strength in building up a self-supporting, well-equipped church. Then in 1928, on account of advancing age and ill health, he retired from active service and was made pastor emeritus of what was under a new plan called the Pilgrim Church.

Despite attacks of heart failure, his devotion to the church continued. It was at the midweek meeting that his summons came. He was carried across the street to the hospital where in a short time he heard the words "Well done" and entered into the joy of his Lord. His was a life of patient endurance and courage in the face of great opposition and discouragements.

Surviving are his wife, three sons and one daughter. The oldest son lives in Palo Alto, Calif., the others in Honolulu. The youngest son is named Francis Cooke Soares, after our Cousin A. F. Cooke, who was vitally interested in the beginnings of the Fowler's Yard Mission and its successor the Portuguese Protestant Church.

FRED LEOPOLD STOLZ. Too late to insert in our last year report, came word of the death of this adopted Cousin on March 10, 1929, in San Francisco, at the age of 75.

Mr. Stolz came to the Islands as a young man about 1879, probably for his brother's marriage to our Cousin Mrs. Mary A. (Rowell) Stolz. He first acted as bookkeeper for the Haiku Sugar Co. at Hamakuapoko, Maui, then was associated with the Kahului Railroad Co. at the time that Gerrit P. Wilder was the manager. This was about 1885.

Mr. Stolz became the owner of the mountain place "Idlewilde" (started and named by Rev. James M. Alexander) on the slopes of Haleakala, about 1883 and used it much, eventually disposing of it to its present owner, Worth O. Aiken.

Leaving the islands in 1896 with his wife and daughter, he located in San Francisco and lived there the rest of his life. At the time of the San Francisco earthquake and fire, Mr. Stolz owned a beautiful home near the Presidio. This they threw open as a refuge to the fire sufferers.

Surviving Mr. Stolz are his wife, who was Miss Georgia Coffee, and daughter Margery.

MRS. JULIET M. (STURGES) STURGEON died June 17, 1925, although we have only lately been notified of the fact.

She was the younger sister of our late adopted Cousin Mrs. Harriet (Sturges) Crawford and a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Sturges of the early Micronesian mission. As Miss Juliet Sturges, she cared for her mother after the death of her father, living in Oakland, Calif., for many years. When her mother passed away in 1893, she married Phineas B. Sturgeon and moved to Los Angeles, Calif., where she made her home the rest of her life. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Carl and Dwight.

WALLACE ALEXANDER WATERHOUSE, the fifth child and the third son of John and Martha (Alexander) Waterhouse, was born in Honolulu December 2, 1907. While playing a practice game of polo with his brothers and cousins at Kahuku, his horse fell and Wallace received a fractured skull. He died during the afternoon of the same day, July 14, 1929.

Wallace attended Punahou School, had two years of High School at Lawrenceville, N. J., and six months in California.

After leaving school Wallace worked at Kahuku Plantation, Oahu, and had been there two years at the time of his death. During that time he had shown wonderful promise of being a splendid business man. He became a great favorite and was mourned by every one from manager to field laborer. He was fond of fishing and of polo and was a good rider. During his early boyhood he won many cups at the races at Kapiolani Park, where he always rode his own horses.

Always cheerful, ever thoughtful of others, Wallace has left a memory of one, who on entering the house, brought with him the sunshine. The homes of his family and relatives were the better for his presence. One would have said he was needed so much here on earth.

At the time of his death he was engaged to be married to Lydia Schaefer. E. W. D.

SAMUEL WHITNEY WILCOX passed away on May 23, 1929, in Honolulu where he had been receiving medical attention.

The fifth in a family of eight sons, Mr. Wilcox was born at Waioli, Kauai, September 18, 1847. His parents were Abner and Lucy Hart Wilcox, who came to these islands as teachers in 1837 with the eighth company of missionaries.

Sam Wilcox received his education at Punahou during the years 1861 to 1867, under Presidents Cyrus T. Mills and Wm. D. Alexander. After the death of his parents in 1869, young Wilcox undertook the growing of sugar cane in Hanalei Valley, Kauai. He also served as deputy sheriff of that district. The two occupations gave him the opportunity of studying the Hawaiians, their language, character and history. As a child he naturally learned to speak Hawaiian and from year to year in his later varied experiences he added to his knowledge, becoming fluent, both in the spoken and written language.

In 1872 he was elected Sheriff of the entire Island of Kauai, and this position of trust he held for twenty-five years. Following annexation of these islands to the United States, he served as Representative from Kauai to the first session of the legislature under the new regime, 1901-1902. He also served as Senator during the 1903-1907 term.

He was married in Hilo on October 7, 1874, to Emma Washburn Lyman, whom he had known at Punahou and whose parents had been closely associated with his own in Hilo from 1837 to 1845. Returning to Kauai with his bride, they established their home at Lihue. With his brother George, he conducted Grove Farm at Lihue, Sam being placed in charge of the cattle ranch department. Lihue has continued to be the family home. There their six children were born and raised, and near by are the graves of their two older sons.

A beautiful parish house stands today on the grounds of the Lihue Union Church as a memorial to the deceased sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, Ralph and Charles. Other memorials were provided for through the American Board. But probably Mr. Wilcox's greatest satisfaction and joy was in the unknown benefactions, which modesty forbade any mention of.

Following a service held in Honolulu, conducted by Rev. Henry P. Judd, Mr. Wilcox's ashes were taken by members of his family for burial in the family plot at Lihue, Kauai.

The kind and genial personality of Mr. Sam Wilcox will long be remembered by his many friends.

We also wish to remember here a former annual member of this Society, MRS. BERNICE BISHOP (PARKE) WALBRIDGE, who died October 21, 1929, in London, England, while on a trip with her sister, Miss Annie Parke. Mrs. Walbridge was the third daughter of William C. and Annie Severance Parke, a well-known kamaaina family, and a cousin of our "Cousin" Helen Severance.

HARRIET G. FORBES,
Secretary.

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY, 1929-1930

Symbols in the List of Members

Original members of the Society, whether children of missionaries or elect members, have their names printed in the usual manner. The names of their children are preceded by one star, and those of children's children by two stars.

In many cases the name is preceded by a symbol in the margin, which denotes the person's missionary parentage or ancestry and the key to the symbols is the list below, in which the missionary names are given, but no titles.

☞ Where the residence of a husband is given, that of the wife, in the next line, is the same.

PLEASE NOTE

If our members who change their addresses will notify us promptly, it will save us much trouble and extra postage. We do want to keep in touch with you, but many reports and letters come back to us marked "Moved, Left No Address," etc. Then we have to start out on a search party for the new address. Sometimes we can trace it, sometimes not. The result is a loss, to you and us.
